

It's News Here, Too

ACCORDING TO A RULING set down by County District Attorney John Nejedly, or was it his wife?) the name of their first child, a daughter born last week, will be "Mary."

A "BEDROOM COMMUNITY"? Never will the City of Pleasant Hill go down in history that way, if the city fathers have their say. They are considering hiring a professional historian who, for a fee of $1000, can come up with an authenticated, dramatic, historic past—suitable for a city seal, themes, pageants, etc. Might be better, at that!

MOST EXPENSIVE bike rack in the county will soon be dismantled at a cost of about $150. Cost to build it? Several thousand of taxpayers' money. Original intended to be a two-cell jail in the sheriff's Lafayette Substation (closed a few months ago), the only things incarcerated were lost or stolen bikes.

Attorney Milton Newmark, who just leased the building, will have the iron bars removed, leaving the rock walls to enclose his solid practice. The cells may be good for a laugh (on the taxpayers?) he says, but he needs the space.

OBVIOUSLY THOROUGH-BRED are those two snooty Afghan hounds chauffeured in a Rolls Royce through Lafayette by their equally elegant owner, D. P. Shoonmeyer, on their way to pick up their specially-blended, high-protein food from Boevers animal hospital.

READY TO DUCK are the editors of the Walnut Creek Sportsman's Club newsletter. At the bottom of the September-October bulletin, they enclosed this questionnaire to members: "I am especially interested in the following sporting activities..."

AND NOW AN AIRTEL. With motels and boats abounding in the county, Contra Costa will soon be the first in Northern California to have a hotel where guests may taxi private planes to a parking area within sight of their rooms. It's the Concord Edgewater Inn, the multi-million dollar inn soon to be built at the south end of Buchanan Field.

Other features will include the largest hotel public rooms in the county (capacity 1000), an "executive club," and a cabana club and pool, says Jim Stockman, president of Transwestern Hotels, Inc., the Santa Rosa firm that holds the long-term lease.

HOW HIGH can you grow grass? This is of grave concern to some Walnut Creek councilmen after the firm stand on turf taken by Councilman Fred Sanders last week in the grass-versus-rest rooms for the city's Larkey Park and Civic Park. Grass won out, despite the pleas of Recreation Commission David Jones. Jones tried to point out that with a tiny-tot area "there's all these little children—and their mothers," he added gallantly.

A CITY-HALL WARMING is in the planning stage in Pleasant Hill this week. The city's chamber of commerce would like to combine the purchase of the new interim civic center with the city's first birthday and sponsor a blast to commemorate the happy occasion. Councilmen are all in favor.

League Hears McBrien Talk

J. P. McBrien, county administrator explained operation of the county and special districts to a League of Women Voters audience Wednesday in Walnut Creek.

Speaking to the Concord-Diablo Valley group, McBrien discussed the relationship of county and districts to state law.

Farewell to Charlie, the Last Swallow of Summer

By BARBARA BEDAYN

September's song is about to end as abruptly as Charlie, summer's last Swallow and dearly beloved pet of an Orinda couple.

Doris and Tom Rudy, 105 Meadow View Road in Orinda aren't quite sure if the young Cliff Swallow who came to live with them considered them just overgrown swallows, or if he thought he was a human.

At any rate, when a neighbor brought him, as a tiny lost fledgling to the Rudy's home, the scarcely feathered baby bird accepted them so confidently that the Rudys felt it was up to them to try to help him.

Tom, not considering himself an authority on the care and feeding of baby swallows, went to the National Audubon Society office, asked for help and was told, "That bird's flipped!" He was cheerfully supplied with a list of the needs of swallows; and a little dubiously, wished good luck.

"Charlie," as they dubbed the young swallow, grew to be a sleekly feathered, free-flying mature bird whose greatest pleasure was to wing around the housepost and then return to settle himself chummily on a shoulder or outstretched finger.

"It's terrible the amount of time I spend catching moths and bugs for Charlie," Mrs. Rudy used to exclaim, "but we're fond of the little bird and he doesn't seem to catch enough for himself. We wonder what he'll do when it's time to migrate and if he'll know how to get along by himself. He's sort of a problem."

The problem was solved this week when Charlie suddenly became ill and died quickly. Plant or insect spray in the neighborhood? Preservative in the meat?

Who knows what killed him, but it was a wonderful, rewarding experience while it lasted, to be adopted by a wild bird.

The Rudys will never forget Charlie's short, sweet song.

Supervisors Will Reopen Ammo Hearing

Parents wishing to express their opinions on a proposed county ordinance regulating the sale of ammunition to minors will have another chance to do so on October 9 at 10 a.m. at the Hall of Records in Martinez.

The proposal would require a signed authorization from parents or guardians before minors can purchase ammunition.

The board of supervisors met Tuesday to decide on the proposal. Previously a public hearing was held several weeks before, with a scant attendance. The public hearings closed at that time.

But Tuesday, supervisors found a group of about 12 men and women who wanted to be heard on the matter. They said they had not received or seen any notice.

A RECEPTION honoring Brother Michael and Johnson will be held in Oliver Hall on campus at 4 p.m.

Brother Michael will deliver and inaugural address at 2:50 p.m.

An academic procession will begin at 1:55 p.m. There will be 145 academic representatives from all over the county. The procession will be led by Harvard University, founded in 1646.

Greetings at 2:20 p.m. will be delivered by Congressman George P. Miller, Jr.

Other greetings will be offered by Edwin W. Pauley, University of California board of regents; Dr. Guy West, Sacramento State College president, and Dr. J. E. Wallace Sterling, Stanford University president.

The public is invited.

LBJ to Attend Inauguration of College Prexy

Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson will be on hand Thursday when Brother T. Michael, F.S.C. is installed officially as president of St. Mary's College.

The inauguration ceremony begins on campus at 1 p.m. It is the first big event in the celebration of the school's 100th year anniversary.

Brother Michael actually was appointed as president on February 5 following the death of Brother Albert, killed in an auto accident.

Johnson will arrive on campus between 1 and 2 p.m. by helicopter. He will receive an honorary degree at 3:05 p.m. and deliver an address at 3:25 p.m.

Governor's Dinner Is Tomorrow Eve

A dinner for Governor Edmund (Pat) Brown will be held tomorrow at 8 p.m. at the Richmond Memorial auditorium in the Richmond civic center.

Reservoir Decision to Advisors

As reported exclusively in The Sun last Friday, the Executive Committee of Citizen's Advisory Committee on Recreation Use of East Bay Reservoirs has accepted a plan for the recreational use of the Lafayette reservoir.

The plan will now be submitted to the whole committee — probably in November.

The advisory committee has approximately 100 members. It includes representatives from sports and civic groups, state and county officials—as well as representatives of East Bay Municipal Utility District.

The plan was submitted by Fred Hector, a professional recreational planner from Los Gatos. It includes a plan for the Chabot Reservoir in Castro Valley as well as the Lafayette Reservoir.

The advisory committee will study Hector's plan for the two areas and then submit it to EBMUD directors with recommendations.

THE SUN has also exclusively reported the progress of the recreation plan for the local reservoir for the past six months.

Hector originally submitted a physical plan last January.

A finalized plan complete with cost estimates and a plan for the operation of the area was submitted to the executive committee last month.

Proposed as operators of the reservoir are Contra Costa County and the East Bay Regional Park District.

If the reservoir plan is approved by the Public Health Department and a new water permit issued, EBMUD can then develop the area and open it to the public—or call for a vote of the people in the district on the issue.

Cost of the proposed facilities was set at approximately $350,000.

The operation is expected to be self-supporting.

ONLY THE AREA immediately around the 131 acres of water would be open to the public.

Non-power boating, fishing, picnicking and hiking would be allowed.

The water has approximately 14,000 feet of shoreline.

The plan will be discussed by tonight by officials of the Contra Costa County Park and Recreation Commission and EBMUD.

Due to the defeat of the bond measure in the June 5 primary election, the county commission is studying alternate methods of establishing an acquisition and development program for parks in the county.

EBMUD officials say an agenda formulated by the commission includes discussion of the Lafayette Reservoir.

Candidate Night Talks In Making

Henry Alexander, campaign director of the Citizens for Rapid Transit will speak in favor of the bond issue proposal for a three county transit system, November 1 during The Sun Candidates Night, it was announced.

Alexander will speak for "Proposition A" while another guest will speak against it. Arrangements are being made.

The Sun Candidates Night will be held at 8 p.m. in the Acalanes High School gymnasium.

Candidates speaking will include the following: Congressman John Baldwin, Republican, and his opponent, Charles Weidner of Pleasant Hill.

Assemblyman Jerome Waldie and his opponent, David Fisher of Pleasant Hill. Assemblyman John Knox and his opponent, John Anderson of Orinda.

Arrangements are also being made for presentations on behalf of the candidates for state superintendent of public instruction, Max Rafferty and Ralph Richardson.

Cecil Hardesty, third-running candidate in the June primaries, has indicated he will be a write-in candidate.

Two Groups Will Fight Transit Bonds

A least two taxpayer's groups have been formed with the exclusive purpose of opposing Rapid Transit Proposition "A."

Last week reports came from Pittsburg of a committee headed by Stanley Nunn which plans to concentrate its anti-transit campaign in the Walnut Creek and Concord area where sentiment for transit is strong.

Then, on Tuesday, an anti-transit group was formed in the City Council Chambers of El Cerrito. Dwayne Boblitt, mayor of El Cerrito, is one of the prime movers of the committee, which is headed by Barry Runkion Jr.

The group, which plans a public meeting at the same place next Tuesday, announced that Stanford White and Mel Shine of Lafayette are their central Contra Costa County representatives.

Goal of the El Cerrito based move is to "inform the public of the hidden and real costs of Proposition 'A,'" according to Shine.

At the same time, the Antioch City Council "lined up" with city councils of Pittsburg and Brentwood, and the Byron Chamber of Commerce, by recommending a "no" vote on the transit proposition.

GOP Women to Meet Wednesday Morning

The Orinda Republican Women's Club will hold its October meeting on Wednesday in Fellowship Hall, Orinda Community Church, Orinda, at 10 a.m., with coffee and social hour starting at 9:30.

Is El Toyonal Crossing Safe or Treacherous?

Santa Maria Has Most Accidents On Camino Pablo

Although statistics do not verify their fears, Orindans are worried about the intersection at El Toyonal and Camino Pablo.

Supervisor Mel Nielsen's office and The Sun have received many calls from concerned parents about "close calls" at the crossing. The last one came in Wednesday at 4 p.m. A large truck nearly jackknifed to avoid four small boys crossing at El Toyonal.

MARK KERMIT, county traffic engineer, stated that the entire area is under constant surveillance in order to avoid accidents. According to the department's statistics, the Santa Maria-Camino Pablo intersection is more in need of a signal than at El Toyonal.

Six accidents have occurred at the Santa Maria-Camino Pablo crossing this year, compared to two at El Toyonal.

On the county's priority list for signals, Kermit stated that the Santa Maria intersection is third and the El Toyonal intersection is fourth. "This fluctuates with new development, and is analyzed fresh each year," he said.

Provision for signals at both intersections were provided in 1957 when Camino Pablo was put in. The cost of each signal is $20,000. The county doesn't put them in unless absolutely needed.

THE GRADE and high school bus stops are on the El Toyonal side of the highway, according to Axel Rasmussen, transportation supervisor for the district. Children crossing at the El Toyonal intersection are not doing so because it is necessary for them to get to school, said Rasmussen.

Parents state that the crossing services the entire El Toyonal and that not all children go to school on the bus, especially the parochial school children.

"The screeching of brakes is constant. Every day, I see the hazard of children trying to cross El Camino at El Toyonal," said Kenneth L. Courtwright, former president of the Chamber of Commerce. Courtwright's insurance brokerage office is at 109 Orinda Highway, overlooking the crosswalk.

Kermit, who is an Orinda resident, stated that the first he had heard of public concern was Wednesday afternoon when Mrs. Mel Nielsen, secretary for her husband, called the traffic department.

Mrs. Nielsen stated that she had received many calls from worried parents. The menace increased, according to the complaints, with the heavy equipment constantly traveling to the Briones Dam project.

KERMIT CHECKED with Capt. Edward Jelich, of the California Highway Patrol. On his own initiative, Jelich had already increased patrol on Camino Pablo. The speed limit is 65 miles an hour.

Monday night, the Orinda Association voted to send a letter to Kermit and Nielsen expressing concern of the community over the hazard of the El Toyonal crossing.

MERIT SEMIFINALISTS—Thirteen Miramonte High School National Merit Corporation Scholarship semifinalists check over the announcement naming them among the top high school students of the country. ## Police 'Brass' To Go to Pop Warner Game

After the football fracas following the Miramonte-Pittsburg High School game, Orinda parents expressed concern over the meeting of La Morinda Thunderbirds and Pittsburg on October 14 at Pittsburg.

Coach for the Pittsburg Pop Warner team is Sal P. Jimmo. Jimmo also happens to be police chief.

"I'll stake my life that there won't be trouble," said Jimmo. He said that he would be at the game as well as other "brass" from the Pittsburg police department.

Pete Villa, Thunderbirds' coach, states that "there is a different type of crowd at Pop Warner games than high school, and the game is on Sunday afternoon."

Condominium Gets Unanimous Supervisor OK

Unanimous approval was given to the Duffel-Smoother condominium by the County Board of Supervisors at Martinez Tuesday at 2 p.m.

Upon a motion by Supervisor Mel Nielsen, seconded by Supervisor James P. Kenny, the 20.5 acre controversial parcel of land was rezoned from agricultural to multiple. It is on Moraga Way at the southwest corner of Ivy Drive.

REPRESENTATIVES of the Duffel-Smoother Companies were in the Hall of Records for the rendering of the decision at a closed hearing.

Joe Smoot declared that his company would immediately proceed with plans for the initial 150 units. Construction should get underway by early spring, he stated.

Scholarship Semifinalists Reach Record Numbers

A record high of National Merit Scholarship semifinalists have been named in the Acalanes Union High School District.

Thirty-one Acalanes District students have earned semifinalist honors. Students were selected on the basis of their "outstanding performance on the National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test."

The 31 Acalanes District students recognized for their excellent educational achievement are part of a national group of 10,000 top high school students so honored throughout the country, attending more than 16,000 high schools.

The semifinalist winners comprise the highest scoring students in each state and in United States territories.

Las Lomas High School—Nora Banwell, Bryan Brown, William

Egan, Leonard Harrison, Ray Palmer, Otta Schatz, Mark Schimbor and Kent Soeters.

Miramonte High School—Sandra Buehler, Steve Cantrill, Brian Cartwright, Jan Chilton, Kathryn Davis, Barbara Hogle, Kathleen Knudsen, Mike Leahy, Robert Lester, Arthur Meader.

Each Merit Scholarship is a four-year award to cover undergraduate college needs. The recipient's stipend is tailored to his need.

Jack Osborn, Kennon White, Frederick Wright.

Commenting on the high number of semifinalists in the Acalanes District, District Superintendent Neil M. Parsons noted that "qualifying for the National Merit Scholarship awards program consideration is a commendation for the students who have received the honor, for their high school program which helped prepare them for this achievement and for their teachers who have guided them this far."

Semifinalists may go on for further competition and eventual consideration for Merit Corporation Scholarships.

Suburbia Scribblings

By MARIE MONAHAN

September in the Main . . .

JUST when we were wondering if September was going to live up to that pretty song title about the rain last Tues., big blobs of rain gently tapped us on the shoulder to announce that summer's finally sung its swan song.

THE CHANGING of the Guard starts the very day school starts . . . Along with the rustle of new dresses, petticoats & stiff bluejeans, there's that strange new restlessness to the rustle of the trees . . .

So recently green & full, they suddenly lose leaf & life to wave their bare arms at the school buses rolling by . . . The garden shows reluctance to bloom again & even a couple of good stiff drinks of H<sub>2</sub>O can't revive it this time of year.

THE MORNING FOG, high in the hills, brings out the pungent aroma of the Eucalypti & the bay bridge viewed from Grizzly Peak, is partially buried in a fog bank, giving it the appearance of a Heavenward Bridge.

THE leaves of brown come tumbling down & so does all the worn-out summer paraphernalia & patio furniture . . . Teeny Van Dyne & Duffy Van Dyne (who live kitty-corner from each other) ride their bicycles together on a chilly afternoon, warm as toast under orange sweatshirts . . . but brrr-legged-cold.

Over on La Campagna, Barbara Wayne, chief cook & contributor to the Community Church's "Simmering In Suburbia" cookbook, reaches for the fish flakes & follows the next step in a strange new recipe for an authentic Japanese soup (cooking for a gourmet get-together tonight at the Everleys), but not without a slightly wary look!

While everyone's petunias are panting for more sunshine, Everything's Coming Up Roses at 66 Loma Vista in the front garden of the Harold Johansons . . . & if you drive up same street, you'll be glad to know the same hollyhock Stu slew, the very day we put it in print for its roadside friendliness, is back So High & beaming at the Hendersons' driveway.

THE SUN'S Jane Putnam pedaling her bicycle over Rheem Way . . . & Don Anderson doing the shopping, searching out the olives at Safeway . . . Hugh Rieger pinching the Honeydew Melon bottoms, sniffing the ambrosia fruit like a Connoisseur & clerk Mario Albo kidding him he'll be charged for any dented ones.

KAREN Brizzolara kindly plunking out "2 CENTS DUE" on her Standard Oil bill at the Post Office & may it be deducted from her next month's charges . . . A sunny disposition on ANY gloomy day, Mary Grah in a bold red & white plaid wool suit, looking warm as her smile.

Hail, HALE, the gang's all here . . .

SABIN SUNDAY: Andy & Phyll Hartanov taking their sugar cubes together . . . Ramona Smith suddenly wondering IF her little lass actually swallowed hers, but we KNOW she did. She "modeled" for our sprout who was still dubious & had to take hers infant-fashion by drops . . .

Blanche Brody assisting at the door . . . wearing crisp white, a busman's holiday, sort of, for Janet Vaughan of EDY's, who did a switch on her SWEETS this special sweet-toothed Sunday. . . Tish Winkworth, school health consultant Janet Santogrossi & Rhoby Jones looking Very Official at a mid-room table. Many wonderful volunteers from the community for this mammoth Operation KO Polio.

JUNIORSVILLE: Ann Stiftnier & Sydney Cutting all aglow after capturing the prize (on horseback) for "Best Pair" in the Walnut Festival Parade . . . Bill Brobeck, Jr., who won the Twist Contest at Tanager's Bash last Sat. nite w/his Mom won something "For The Man Who Has Everything"—a 2# sack of perfumed manure . . . Mama Jane's prize was a Shampoo & Set at Jimmie Barnes' Pink Door.

Laverne Hale's Batting Average w/local Moms, Dads & Kids is That High . . . Practically singlehandedly, she went to bat for a fund-raiser Baseball Game between Del Rey & Inland Valley Moms & we heard more happy reports on the fun & good sport of the benefit which netted near $500 for school library books.

BATTER UP! Dee Seifert, Mary Green, Kay Patton, all models of physical fitness & good sports . . . Dittio Nancy Longacre, Fran Dirickx, chief cheer leader & loudest rooster, Evelyn Yost . . .

There were free icecream bars all around donated by Orinda-Laf merchants & the Moms even wore team sweatshirts, half emblazoned w/UC, the rest w/St. Mary's . . . Hail, Hail, the whole Hale Gang was there & we have to agree—a wonderful way to raise Mummy—we mean, Money.

MISSING the noon-hour rain droplets the other day, Jackie Archer & Bernease Lewis cozily occupied w/luncheon fare at Phair's new Penthouse adjoining The Top Of The Stairs . . .

Getting in their last licks of summer a Orinda Park Pool last Sunday were Mary Jane & Bill Luecker & children. She's very active in AFS . . . & Helen Jones & her Jones' Girls arrived home to much squealing, howling & hugging from their long sojourn in Switzerland & other pernts European.

Republican Lindsey Spight is producing the Republicans' "Rheem Razzle-Dazzle" Theater Party benefit slated for the same theater stage Tues., Oct. 16 at $25. a throw . . . Top-flight talent is being recruited . . . & Atty. Gen. Tom Coakley (former bay area big band leader) will do a Dixieland turn at the drums! Spight's Committee incl. San Ramon's 67" Bob Livermore as well as Mrs. Mac Osborne, who can be reached at VE 7-4140 for further tkt. info.

WALKATHON: Good to see people who still walk, even if it's up & downhill as Coby Raymer, Holland Newcomer, was doing one day last week, all the way from upper El Toyonal to the Village . . . We miss Kitty Gillivan, who moved South, taking her leisurely long walks whenever she pleased . . . Swim Champ Peggy Hart hiking home from a tennis lesson at the Floyd Svensson's court.

The Jerry Pixleys, Charles Burketts & the aforementioned Svenssons are in the long Stork Club line-up . . . & Brahms Lullaby is the September song in the households of the David Costas, Eric Murrys & the Robert Pessis who all welcomed Bundles recently.

BLUE RIBBON Congrats to the Ray Lutrells (T-Bones mgr.) on their First-born, an 8 lb. boy, just about 2 wks. Brand New now . . . & The Helping Hand fund at Wells-Fargo to help put this new father Ray back on his feet (after an accident requiring foot amputation) will remain open through September . . . A few more days to make that small donation if you've meant to, but just haven't quite got around to it . . . After Oct. 1 the contributed monies will be turned over to Ray via a bank acct. transfer . . .

CULTURE, Vulture? Poet Harold Whitt's poem in Aug. issue of Contact flows like heavy wine, fascinating read aloud . . . Artist Gloria Brown's abstracts are currently displayed at SF's Gallery of Fine Art, her one-man show to run through Oct. 3 . . . Her paintings were previewed w/bubbly & lots of localities on hand.

PUT A RING around Oct. 16, 10 A.M. . . Mrs. Ludmilla N. Shapiro, wife of the director of U.P.'s Moscow Bureau, will speak to Friends of the Orinda Library on "The Bookshelf of Soviet Russia"

SQUARE, There, Dust off your dancing shoes & join the new Square Dance eve for Adult beginners, wkly. starting Wed., Oct. 3 at 8 PM, Pine Grove aud, ausp. of Orinda Rec. Dept. . . . Ralph York will do the calling for the 24 wk. session & you can learn more by a call to Jean Grant, CL 4-4901.

FOR YOU Bridge addicts, a new Duplicate Bridge series at Oak Spring Clubhouse sponsored by same Swim Club . . . Sessions every Friday, 10:30-2 PM w/coffee & donuts for all. Master Point day, first Fri. of each month, accdg. to bus. mgr. Gini Maier who'll welcome a call (CL 4-8572) from prospective players.

THELMA PATTERSON, former owner of Heaven To Eleven, will christen her new Segreto di Bellezza (secret of beauty) salon at 20 Orinda Way w/a splash of champagne tonight, 5-8 . . .

Family of the Week

MR. AND MRS. DOUG GOULD AND FAMILY

A Summer Souvenir . . .

AMONG THE SOUVENIRS at the Doug Gould's home is this magnificent piece of driftwood, just one of Mother Nature's creations the family is likely to find in the trunk of their car on return from frequent trips to the high Sierras or the seashore.

PRIMITIVE camping in the Ah, Wilderness! style is pure pleasure to the Goulds who have it down to a science, even with Marilyn, a new kindergartener, contributing her share after being indoctrinated in camping lore since the ripe old age of three.

DOUG GOULD, who is with the California Research Corporation in San Francisco, received his degree in chemistry at U.C., his engineering honors at M.I.T. Well-known for his work in the Boy Scouts, he is a past scoutmaster of Troop 200 and like his wife Regina, a native Berkeleyan.

Sharing her husband's scout interests, Mrs. Gould is a committee chairman with Senior Girl Scout Troop 204. She is a graduate of the Berkeley University in Economics and a member of the American Home Economics Association.

Tom, 15½, attends Miramonte where he plays junior varsity football and participates in the wrestling program. As a Scout, he served on the hike staff at Wolfboro

Camp for two years. His sister Barbara, 14, is in the "christening class" of freshmen at the new Campolindo High School, is an honor student, a senior scout and active in Job's Daughters.

Jim, 8, has a butterfly collection that will be the envy of any other lepidopterists he might meet in the new cub scout Pack 225 ranks and the five-year-old, fleet-footed Marilyn is already a #1 helper, aiding her family in the hobby of collecting minerals and driftwood.

The family, who moved here from Fullerton three years ago, live at 68 Orchard Road, Orinda.

After School Student Employment Is Sought

Miramonte and Acalanes High School students who want part-time jobs now have their own employment service available on the school grounds, during school hours.

An interviewer from the youth and student section of the state employment service visits with Miramonte on Tuesdays and Thursdays from 3 to 4 p.m. in the dean's office, to talk with interested students.

Jobs filled so far have included employment as baby sitter, a mother's helper, swimming pool maintenance, gardening, home construction work, and as vendors for University of California football games.

Students may also be employed as tutors for younger students, with the approval of the school's counseling office.

Campolindo Sets Student Assembly

Campolindo High School students have formed a "constitution assembly" to formulate and adopt a constitution, temporarily conduct student body affairs, and represent the school.

New officers for the constitution assembly are Craig Blencow, acting president; Woody Osmun, acting vice president; Jill Winters, acting secretary; Debbie Hopper, acting treasurer.

Other offices include: Steve Harris, Chris Price, Linda Beasley, Bob Candelieri, Jeff Campbell, Wayne Johnston, Chris Zimmerman, Cathy Rogers, Nancy Brown, Katie Morrison, Sandy Iva and Kitty Cole. Dean of boys, James Nelson, is faculty advisor to the group.

Don Doughty to Attend Meeting

Donald L. Doughty, president of Orinda Pools, Inc., 3569 Mt. Diablo Boulevard, Lafayette, will attend the annual autumn meeting of the National Swimming Pool Institute board of directors October 4-6 in Cleveland, Ohio.

Doughty is vice president of the 800-member trade and professional group and national standards and technical coordinator.

He also is a member of the N.S.P.I. industry advisory committee to the National Sanitation Foundation which is conducting tests of swimming pool equipment leading to the NSF seal of approval.

Tahoe Home

Construction of a mountain home at Tahoe Keys was started recently for Mr. and Mrs. M. Walthall Turner of Orinda.

With its own private beach on a broad lagoon leading to the waters of Lake Tahoe, the Turners' Tahoe Keys home will be completed before ice skating begins on the Keys' lagoons.

Rotarians Hear Don Blackwood

Don Blackwood, new district governor for Rotary, spoke to the Orinda Rotary Club at Mike Lynn's Wednesday at noon.

President John Ogden acted as program chairman and presided.

He emphasized the purpose of Rotary and the importance of strengthening the individual from within.

Wednesday evening, the Orinda Rotarians again convened at Ogden's home. They "turned the tables" on Blackwood and did the talking—also, asked him questions.

Next week's meeting will be a color film, "Force in Readiness," prepared by the U.S. Marines and Navy.

Coin-Operated Dry Cleaner to Open Monday

Sunshine Center, a Philco-Bendix coin-operated dry cleaner with washing and drying facilities, will open Monday.

It is in the old post office building, 231 Brookwood Road. Art Stewart is the manager. Dorothy and Ted Rosenthal are owners.

"SUNSHINE CENTER is a one-stop operation. All related services are under the same roof: coin-operated dry cleaning, washing, drying, on-the-spot professional pressing, and finished shirt laundry," said Stewart, who is an experienced, licensed dry cleaner.

He will be on duty at all times to answer questions and explain the procedure. Stewart has had 25 years experience in the cleaning business.

Philco-Bendix pioneered the coin-operated dry cleaning machines. A machine will do an eight-pound load—an armload. The customer weighs her bundle to determine how much to put in each machine. Printed instructions are on each machine.

A LOAD COSTS $2 and takes 22 minutes.

The dry-cleaner tumbles the clothes in a cylinder, much like an automatic washer. However, a special solvent is used instead of water. This solvent is constantly filtered by an elaborate system within the machine.

"Economy and speed are the principal advantages of Sunshine Center," said Stewart. "It marks the dawn of a new era of self-service."

"WE CHOSE Orinda as the location for our center because we felt that a growing, progressive industry belongs in a growing, progressive community," said Rosenthal.

Anyone entering the store from October 1-13 may register for a drawing for a Brother's portable sewing machine. The 100 second prizes will be a $75 discount on the purchase of a $209.50 machine.

Segreto di Bellezza Will Have Opening

Segreto di Bellezza (Secret of Beauty) will have its champagne opening for invited guests tonight from 5 p.m. to 8 p.m.

Mrs. Thelma Patterson, owner, will greet guests at the opening of the house of beauty. It is located at 20 Orinda Way in the Santa Maria Center.

Builder Feichtmeir said that the $300,000 building should be ready by the first of the year. There will be 20 two-bedroom units and two units with one bedroom. He expects rentals to range from $135 to $175 a month.

Feichtmeir stated that the architecture was designed to emphasize privacy, with separate entrances. Each unit of the two-story structure will have a patio or deck.

Although the creek will be filled in, Feichtmeir declared that the apartment would be extensively landscaped. Redwood will be used extensively on the exterior.

Hats Off To...

Eleanor Funk, Pres. Orinda Art Center...

A BOUQUET of mammoth mums, please, for Eleanor Funk, president of Orinda Art Center, who deftly dabbles in all manner of crafts and turns out creations of woodcarving, mosaics, bonsai gardening that grace her home and garden as well as many community activities.

The lady with decorative leanings is tapped for her talents on many committees, is currently working on the Glorietta Parents' Club welcome tea, Thursday. Mrs. Funk is a past member of the Orinda Woman's Club and has served as safety and health committee chairman at Glorietta School.

As president of the Orinda Art Center, her favorite subject is the highly successful children's art classes soon to launch another series and she hopes the children's work will be even more widely displayed at the November luncheon when sponsors and friends meet for the traditional exhibit at Orinda Country Club.

A NATIVE of Portland, she attended Oregon State, in 1942 moved to the bay area living in El Cerrito for eight years and then in Lafayette where she was an active member of the Lafayette Woman's Club.

The gifted craftsman, who enlists the help of her husband Dick and seven-and-a-half-year old son Bobby, to cart rocks, shells and driftwood pieces home from their trips, admits she's inclined to overload the car at times. But how else would she be able to turn out those mosaic tables, bird baths, bonsai and water bowls that are her favorite pastime and pleasure.

THE FAMILY trio are ski aficionados and dedicated beachcombers and rockhounds. They are active at St. Stephen's Church (where Eleanor has taught Sunday school) and live on Scenic Drive, Orinda.

Auto Parts, Hay, Tools

Among Thefts This Week

A carburetor belonging to a St. Mary's College student, was stolen from his car, parked in the college garage in Moraga Valley, sometime Saturday night, according to reports of the sheriff's office.

Frank LaPrete, owner of the car, said the missing part was valued at $85.

In other burglaries this week, an undetermined amount of hay was stolen over the week-end from the warehouse at the Bishop Ranch in San Ramon Valley.

A METAL BOX of mechanics tools, valued at $82, was stolen from the home of James McCoy, 475 Deda Drive, Danville, sometime Monday.

Ten dollars in small change was stolen from a cash box early Saturday at Jim's Muffler Shop, 2199 Contra Costa Highway, Pleasant Hill. Deputies said the responsible party evidently was a very small person who managed to enter through a hole in the wall.

Sno White Drive-in, 2892 North Main Street, Walnut Creek, was robbed of $140 sometime early Sunday. Entry was made via a sliding back door that had been pried open.

A box of 22 caliber bullets and $7 in change were stolen from the home of Morgan Lewis, 62 Alta Vista, Orinda, early last Friday.

A loud speaker belonging to Al Field, San Ramon Highway, San Ramon, was stolen sometime over the weekend. Value of the speaker was listed as $250.

Jewish New Year Today

The Jewish New Year 5723 will be ushered in at the 8 p.m. service tonight at Temple Isaiah, 3800 Mt. Diablo Boulevard, Lafayette. Rabbi David Robbins' sermon will be "The Guise of the Perplexed."

Cantor Henri Goldberg and the center mixed choir will present special music this evening and at 10 a.m. tomorrow. A special children's service will be held at 3 p.m. tomorrow.

Football Coach 'Reassigned' 8 More Expelled In Pittsburg Football Fracas

Governors of the Foothill Athletic League Tuesday accepted a decision by the San Ramon High School Board to "reassign" head varsity football coach Fred Houston because of practice violations by the San Ramon football team.

The decision, after a 2½-hour review of the case, was unanimous.

The principals of the eight league schools, who make up the board of governors, all voted on the matter.

Member schools are Alhambra, Acacanes, Campolindo, Del Valle, Miramonte, Las Lomas, Piedmont and San Ramon.

League governors first acted on the complaint against San Ramon on September 13.

They told San Ramon that coach Houston should be relieved of his coaching duties for the 1962 year, or the school would be asked to withdraw from the league.

At Tuesday's meeting, San Ramon "agreed to and supported the position of the governors."

LAST WEEK, Houston asked the San Ramon High School Board to be "reassigned" from his coaching duties.

The complaint against San Ramon was made by Del Valle principal William Ross who had observed "about 50 boys holding highly organized football practice drills on the San Ramon field on August 20."

League rules state that organized practice sessions are not to begin until August 27.

Ross, in his letter to all league members, stated that the boys were wearing gym clothes and football shoes and were being admitted to the school locker room.

Houston and San Ramon officials did not deny the complaint.

In a press release yesterday, the Foothill governors stated: "Since an official league endorsement was previously conveyed to San Ramon High School in 1961, and all schools were warned last spring concerning illegal early season practice, there was no alternative but to make a judgment regarding this continued violation."

San Ramon has played two non-league games to date and Houston was allowed to coach in these contests.

However, starting this evening at Alhambra, his duties will be handled by Cal Gower, an assistant coach. It is assumed Houston will be back as head coach next year. This is his third year as head coach at San Ramon.

THE LEAGUE ruling is for one year only.

The story was first reported by a Danville newspaper September 19.

In this week's edition of the same paper, a page one article reprints in full a letter from Dr.

Jack V. Shabbazian, president of the San Ramon High School Board.

The letter stated that the alternatives set down by the Foothill League governors was "arbitrary, unjust, excessive and showed lack of professional judgment."

Shabbazian asked in the letter that another meeting should be called to review the violation and to restudy the penalties imposed.

This meeting was held Tuesday afternoon.

Polio Down for Count: Make-up Clinics Today

While 2.5 million received Sabin vaccine throughout the Bay Area Sunday, Contra Costa County immunized a higher percentage of its citizens (83 per cent) than any county but Marin, high with 91 per cent.

The central county area, including Lafayette, Orinda, Walnut Creek, Pleasant Hill and Danville-Alamo, was slightly above the county average with 84.1 per cent.

Residents of these communities received Type I of the Sabin oral vaccine in the following numbers and percentages:

DANVILLE-ALAMO, 13,378, 102 per cent.

Lafayette, 16,781, 93.2 per cent.

Orinda, 15,665, 91.4 per cent.

Walnut Creek, 29,994, 88.1 per cent.

Pleasant Hill, 9000, 43.1 per cent.

For those who failed to take the vaccine-bearing sugar lumps last Sunday, leaders of the campaign have set up "make-up clinics" for today.

For residents of the central county area, such a clinic will be open from 2 to 7 p.m. at the Pleasant Hill Health Office, 79 Santa Barbara Road.

Taxpayers Group Names New Sec.

Paul F. Hughey has been appointed executive secretary of the Contra Costa County Taxpayers Association, effective October 1, 1962, succeeding Harry L. Morrison, Jr. Morrison recently resigned after 11 years' service with the important taxpayers' group to devote his time to other interests.

Association President E. L. Slagle announced that Morrison has been elected a director of the association for a three-year term.

Following six years' service in the Navy during World War II, Hughey attended the University of California in Berkeley, graduating in 1950 with a degree in Political Science. He was employed with the U.S. Military Sea Transportation Service in San Francisco and later with Henry J. Kaiser Company in Oakland.

He is now self-employed as a personnel management and organization planning consultant. He is a lecturer in Political Science at St. Mary's College in the field of American Government and Politics and is also a Ph.D. candidate in Political Science at U.C. Hughey presently resides in Berkeley with his wife, Dorothy, and two daughters.

Johnson, formerly vice-chairman, succeeded Steve Welch of Martinez in line with supervisor's recommendation that the office be rotated annually.

The commission discussed county administrator J. P. McBrien's report of possible disposal of the district office site in Ygnacio Valley, and then asked to confer with county supervisors before county action.

Town Beauty, Flanneled Man in 'Suburbia Today'

What are you doing to beautify your town? This is the question we asked the editors of suburban newspapers around the country, and you may be surprised at their answers when next Friday's edition of The Sun brings you the October issue of "Suburbia Today."

From Hatboro, Pennsylvania, to Bellevue, Washington, came reports, in this month's Round Table, of every type of town improvement beginning with flower boxes along Main Street and going on to community-wide projects that take up to 10 per cent of the annual budget!

Our survey proves that people in the suburbs are saying — in deeds as well as in words — we found beauty here and we're going to keep it that way.

Sloan Wilson, creator of "The Man in the Gray Flannel Suit," looks at his stereotype seven years later and finds there's been a change.

That driven young man, with his gray flannel and the rat race that went along with it, has grown older and, hopefully, wiser.

He has stopped trying to keep up with the Joneses and instead is devoting himself to extension courses, fine recordings, and books that aren't even on the best-seller lists. In "Look What's Happened to the Man in the Gray Flannel Suit!" you'll learn the reasons behind this change.

On the lighter side of suburban living, there's humorist Al Brown's ABC primer for the suburbs — "From Agent to Zoning."

Mr. Brown, after years of local taxpaying, is eminently qualified to spoof the land bordered by crab grass, and he offers his own hilarious definitions for all the special words in the suburbanite's dictionary.

Lucido said he was glad to see that the people who are doing these things are being punished rather than the entire student body.

"We believe the example being made of these students will discourage further outbreaks of this kind," Lucido said.

McCunn Sues JC District For $112,522

Drummond J. McCunn, superintendent of the Contra Costa Junior College District, carried his claims for unpaid wages, car allowance and retirement benefits into Superior Court in Martinez in a $112,522.90 suit against the district.

McCunn, whose $20,000 a year contract would have run until July 31, 1965, was fired by the district's governing board effective last June 30.

His dismissal ended seven months of bitter controversy stemming from a public statement in which McCunn commended the John Birch Society for its anti-communist stand.

McCunn's supporters have since charged that McCunn was ousted for political reasons, while board members maintain that the contract was terminated because McCunn's deteriorating relationship with teachers and administrators made it impossible for him to administer the district.

The suit asks payment of $81,666.66 in wages, $45,306.24 in unattained retirement benefits and $5550 for unused car allowance.

Board members, who were confronted with similar claims before the suit, have hired the San Francisco law firm of Long and Levitt to represent them.

Johnson Will Head Flood Board

A. V. Johnson was named chairman of the Contra Costa Flood Control and water conservation district commissioners at a reorganization meeting Tuesday.

Ed Sellers of Brentwood became vice-chairman, while Forrest Simoni of Richmond, continues as secretary.

Johnson, formerly vice-chairman, succeeded Steve Welch of Martinez in line with supervisor's recommendation that the office be rotated annually.

The commission discussed county administrator J. P. McBrien's report of possible disposal of the district office site in Ygnacio Valley, and then asked to confer with county supervisors before county action.

Laf-Frantics '62 Opens Tonight at Town Hall

Laf-Frantics opens its 1962 season tonight at Lafayette's Town Hall.

Here are some samples of what's in store for the audience tonight when the curtain opens at 8 p.m.

"And now, my proud beauty, you'll be mine or over the cliff, you go!" That's the villain's line. "No, no, a thousand times no," cries the heroine.

And so it goes.

These and many other sounds of levity will echo through the old theater tonight as Laf-Frantics begins its seventh year of "melodrama."

This year's production is entitled "Toss Lightly, and Serve."

"He Ain't Done Right by Nell" is an old-fashioned melodrama under the direction of Jack Holden, a member of the Dramateurs.

HOLDER, displaying his versatility, will portray a Valentino-type movie idol later in the evening in "You Rang, Sir?"

It is a parody of the silent movie era written especially for the show by Elaine Doubleday and Fran Ferriter of Lafayette.

Hilton Hays, an unmitigated cad, a wolf in sheep's clothing complete with moustache, is portrayed by Dick Smith of Pleasant Hill.

Jack Logan, the manly hero who is kind to dumb animals and the object of his affections, Little Nell Perkins, the old-fashioned heroine, are played by Walnut Creek's Charles Berger and Jerrie Burnside of Lafayette.

Evelyn McLean of Pleasant Hill will direct the delightful nonsense and music during the intermission.

ALTHOUGH "TOSS Lightly and Serve" is the theme of the evening, the audience is not encouraged to bring any, Laf-Frantics officials say. (They're afraid what might happen to the cast, some say.)

Jack Peterson will hold auditions en masse in the audience

Guys & Dolls To Open

Local guys join local dolls next week in a producing of the musical comedy classic, Frank Loesser's "Guys and Dolls," produced by the Contra Costa Musical Theatre.

The show includes Loesser's hit tunes, "A Bushel and a Peck," "I'll Know," "I've Never Been in Love Before," and "Luck Be a Lady" to name just a few.

THE STORY, a musical fable based on Damon Runyon characters, takes place off Broadway in New York City. Miss Sarah Brown is in charge of the Save-A-Soul Mission near Times Square and she holds street meetings in the same vicinity where Nathan Detroit and his fellow gamblers hang out.

Nathan is operator of a floating crap game. Miss Adelaide, a singer at the Hot Box night club, is tired of her 14-year engagement to Nathan and wants him to go legit and marry her. If Nathan can raise $1000, his floating crap game can continue.

He hits upon the idea of betting Sky Masterson (the biggest better of them all) that Sky cannot get a certain doll to go to Havana with him. Nathan names Sarah and the fun begins!

OPENING NIGHT is scheduled for Saturday, October 6 at Mt. Diablo Auditorium in Concord. Curtain time is 8:30 p.m.

Tickets are now available and may be purchased from any member or at Brown's Music Center in Concord or Reilly's Music Store in Walnut Creek.

Nearly everyone reads The Sun.

29,379 Visit Science Center

Diablo Valley College's Science Center has played host to 29,379 persons since its opening in January of 1961, museum curator James S. Byrne reported to the Contra Costa Junior College District governing board recently.

In the last year alone, Byrne said, 11,223 people visited the center's museum, while another 4,910 attended planetarium showings and lectures.

In addition to 819 Diablo Valley College students who utilized the museum as part of their regular classroom work, 2627 other students were casual visitors. The planetarium also served as a classroom.

One of the science center's more important functions, however, has been its use as a teaching tool by the public schools of the county. The public schools program has operated on two levels: general tours, and study guides covering separate museum collections, he said.

September Song: Short & Sweet

SEPTEMBER STOLE swiftly through our valley, leaving it touched with bronze and brown. The best month of them all went by too quickly, as good things have a way of doing.

Monday, enter the month of hobgoblins. Not much longer will the owls have Rheem creek to hoot along, as it is to be filled in to make way for progress. The pumpkins, happily, still have a place to grow plump and soon will be-dazzle us with orange (a color I made up to rival the latest fall shade, "mud"!)

NEWSY NAMES: Manuel Freitas has sold the most tickets to date for the volunteer firemen's dance to benefit Santa's Jeep. It will be Saturday at 8 p.m. at Carroll Country Club. If you haven't paid your buck yet, do. And Manuel, save the first dance for me. . . . Helping Hand Fund for Ray Luttrell closes this week. So whilst you have your wallet out, why not give to Ray's fund at Wells-Fargo, Orinda. The T-Bone manager, who lost his foot days after his 21st birthday, will be unable to return to the Rheem stand for many months. The Luttrells now have a big baby boy to feed, too.

Maurice Baitx, fire chief Al's brother, just received a trophy for firing high score at the Western Division Patrol Matches at Camp Pendleton held last spring. Marine Gunnery Sgt. Baitx fired a score of 542 out of a possible 600. Good gunnin', brother Baitx. Al and Jo sometimes trek south to "vacation" with the M. Baitxes, their five sons and one daughter. . . . Gerald Goss, son of Mrs. Pearl Goss of Canyon, completed recruit training this month at the Naval Training Center, San Diego.

Young Jim Lewis brought glory to Draeger Drive when he kicked a 23-yard field goal (at an awful angle) with 35 seconds to go at the Miramonte-Castro Valley game Friday p.m. The 160 lb. senior fullback won the game for dear old Miramonte, 3-0. . . . Young Jim isn't to be confused with another young Jim, his father, who also does his bit for Miramonte—as principal.

Tom Peek left Ellen and the six little Peeks at their 118 Donald Drive domicile. No scandal—Tom has gone to L.A. to assume leadership for Prudential's northern states. The Peeks were in the process of building a six-bedroom home in Diablo View Estates, so it may be Christmas before Ellen and the crew can join the young exec.

Next door, on the corner of Donald and Moraga Way, the Larry Lucas family moved into the home recently vacated by the Douglasses. The littlest Lucases are Shelley, 2½, and Debbie, 1. Dad is with Butler-Conti, Lafayette car dealer. . . . Ken and Arline Douglas moved to another Harold Smith home in the hilltop off Rheem Boulevard.

NEWSY DATES. The Moraga Valley GOP girls and boys are busy, busy. "Harvest Wine Festival" is planned by the GOP girls October 6 at Marini's from 6:30-8 p.m. For only $1.50, you can taste the Christian Brothers' wines from Schnopp's Valley. . . . The Republican Razzle-Dazzle will be at the Rheem Theater October 16, where duets will go (while they last) at $25 per copy.

Thursday will be the inauguration of Brother Michael as St. Mary's president. He and a few members of the faculty had a quiet dinner at Marini's Saturday p.m. Among V.I.P. who will come to the ceremony will be Lyndon and Jim-Johnson and Zellerbach, that is, (Thud—names dropped!)

The old St. Mary's train station has been torn down—it always seems sad to see a landmark razed.

LIONS ROAR. Moraga Lions swung into high gear at the Barn for their first fall meeting a week ago Monday. Frank Iszak, Hungarian freedom fighter who flew an airplane out of Hungary in 1956 and landed it in Germany, was speaker. He told of the Communist regime in his homeland and spoke in a "it can happen here" vein. Charles Druggs Ferreira was program chairman.

Over 70 attended the clambake at Bolinas Bay on sunny Sunday. Among those enjoying Chef Art Fleuti's steamed clams from Washington were Clare Fleuti, Celi and Jim Barcelona, Jack and Daphne Taylor, Betty and John deGuarda, Jack and Pat Neldham (with delectable Danish dessert for all) . . . Also the Tom Carrolls, the Chuck Malones, the Jess Kinsers, the Bob Franceses. The Lions left the beach when time and tide ran out. . . . As it must to all men, even columnists.

Thunderbirds Open Home Season Sunday at Orinda

Win No. 2 will be the objective of the LaMorinda Thunderbirds Sunday afternoon when they host the Oakland Dyna-Mites at Miramonte High School field, 1:30 p.m.

The Thunderbirds romped to a 28-6 halftime lead, then cleared the bench as they routed Livermore, 34-6, last Saturday night in the opening Pop Warner of the season.

It was Livermore's second straight loss. The Thunderbirds had a bye on the opening week of the season.

Fullback Bob Voortmeyer scored the first three Thunderbirds' touchdowns on runs of one, 40 and 70 yards.

THE THUNDERBIRDS took the opening kickoff and easily marched 60 yards for the score with Voortmeyer diving for the six points. The fullback also collected the extra point.

The next time the Thunderbirds got the ball, it was off to touchdown land again.

Voortmeyer, behind a wall of blockers, swept his own left end and scooted the final 40 yards to pay dirt. He then slammed off tackle for the PAT and a 14-0 lead for the Thunderbirds.

Livermore came back with the help of a lapse in the secondary of the locals.

A Livermore end got behind his defender, picked off an aerial and picked up his team's only score on a 60-yard pass and run play.

The Thunderbirds, who scored every time they got the ball in the first quarter, wasted no time in the second stanza.

FOLLOWING the Livermore kickoff, Voortmeyer, on a dive play, found a big hole right up the middle and outran all the defenders without being touched for a 70-yard touchdown. He then chalked up his 21st point of the evening on a slant off tackle.

The Thunderbirds continued their merry way the next time they touched the ball.

Left halfback Kevin Smith broke off his own left tackle and raced 35 yards for the locals' fourth score of the first half late in the second period.

Quarterback Doug Moreland pitched to end Dennis Tierney for the PAT and a 28-6 halftime lead.

In the second half, the reserve backfield of Mike Williams, Mike erich provided some offensive Davies, Bill Terry and Bill Diet-fireworks, but couldn't score after a Steve Seely to Tierney pass picked up another six points early in the third quarter.

The pass came at the end of a slick double-reverse in the back-field.

Go to Church Sunday

UNITARIAN

Dr. Homer A. Jack, well-known executive director of the National Committee for a Sane Nuclear Policy (SANE), will give a talk entitled, "Go Tell the Russians" at the Mt. Diablo Unitarian Church on September 30. Dr. Jack attracted the world's attention this past summer when he attended the World Congress for General Disarmament and Peace in Moscow as a non-Communist representative. There, he stated his opposition to American high-altitude tests as well as Russian tests.

A Unitarian clergyman, Dr. Jack was minister of the Unitarian Church of Evanston, Illinois from 1948 to 1959. He no longer has a permanent pulpit, but preaches where and when he can—his full-time job being with SANE. This organization, which he helped to establish in 1957, is a non-governmental organization devoted to organizing American public opinion for a ban on nuclear weapons and for universal disarmament under inspection.

Adult services are held at the American Red Cross Building, 221 Ygnacio Valley Road, Walnut Creek at 9 a.m.; Sunday school and kindergarten through eighth grade meets at the Highland Building, 2363 Boulevard Circle, and pre-schoolers at the Creative Play Center, 1920 Riviera Avenue. The high school group meets at 7 p.m. each Sunday at the Red Cross Building.

METHODIST

"The Art of Preaching and Practicing" will be the sermon topic of the Rev. George E. Berry Sunday at the Lafayette Methodist Church, 955 Moraga Road, Lafayette. Worship services are held at 9:30 and 11 a.m. Nursery care is provided during both services.

Church school is held at 9:30 a.m. Classes are for three year olds through high school. An adult Bible class is held at 9:30 a.m.

The Intermediate Methodist Youth Fellowship (for seventh and eighth graders) and the High School Methodist Youth Fellowship meet Sunday evenings at 7 p.m. in the new Fellowship building The Wesley Fellowship (for college-age youth) meets at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Rupert Manning, 103 Sierra Drive, Walnut Creek.

THE ORINDA COMMUNITY CHURCH

(United Church of Christ)
"Rootage in Faith" will be the subject of the Rev. Chauncey Blossom's sermon topic at the Orinda Community Church at 9:30 and 11 o'clock.

The sanctuary choir will sing "Alleluia" by James. Church school classes for children three years old through the high school grades will be held at 9:30, and through the eighth grade at the 11 o'clock hour.

Senior High Pilgrim Fellowship will meet for chapel service at 7 p.m. and barbecue on the patio at 7:30 p.m.

ST. GILES' EPISCOPAL CHURCH

Services on Sunday will be Holy Communion at 8:30 a.m. and morning prayer and litany at 9:30 a.m. The Vicar, the Rev. Wm. J. Frankhuizen will report on the laymen's conference and diocesan conference of last week.

Sunday school classes for pre-school through sixth grade are held following the service. Child care is also provided for children under three years.

Services are held at Inland Valley School, 70 Ivy Drive, Orinda.

The Convocation of the Deaneery Youth will be at St. Timothy's Episcopal Church, Danville, at 3:30 p.m. on Sunday.

EPISCOPAL

"The Need of a Standard" will be the subject of the Rev. Stanley B. Smith, vicar, of St. Anselm's Episcopal Church, at the 10 a.m. service on Sunday. Holy Baptism will also be held at the 10 a.m. service.

Holy Communion will be celebrated at the 8 a.m. service. Evening prayer will be at 7 p.m. Mid-week Holy Communion will be on Wednesday, October 3. St. Anselm's is located at 682 Michael Lane, Lafayette.

LUTHERAN

"Anxiety and Economic Security" will be the sermon theme of the Rev. Merle O. Tollefson at both the 8:30 and 10:45 a.m. services in Our Savior's Lutheran Church, 1035 Carol Lane, this Sunday. Sunday school offers two sections. The first, a complete Sunday school from three-years-old up through the adult department, meets at 9:30 a.m. A second session is conducted simultaneously with the second service at 10:45 a.m. for three-year-olds through the third grade. Nursery care is available from 9:30 on through the morning.

The Junior Luther League will meet at 7 p.m. for those in seventh and eighth grades.

A new adult inquiry class is being organized on Monday evening at 8 for those who are interested in studying the Christian faith more in depth. The public is most cordially invited to attend.

BAPTIST

Dark Valley, awarded the best religious film of 1961, will be shown at the First Baptist Church of Orinda-Lafayette, Sunday, at 7 p.m. Dark Valley reveals the reactions of three men as they faced death in a mine disaster. Long suppressed bitterness explodes between father and son, and a friend.

At the 11 a.m. worship service, the pastor will speak on the subject, "What Makes a Home Christian."

Sunday school convenes at 9:45 a.m., and Baptist Youth Fellowship meets at 6:15 p.m. The pastor, Rev. L. C. Guido, announced nursery facilities are available for all services of the church, and a junior church is conducted for children during the 11 a.m. service.

The church is located at 4300 El Nido Ranch Road.

EPISCOPAL

The services on Sunday at St. Stephen's Episcopal Church, St. Stephen's Drive and Las Vegas Road, Orinda, will consist of Holy Communion at 7:30 a.m., morning prayer and ante-communion at 9 a.m. and 11 a.m. The Rev. C. Corwin Calavan, rector, will deliver the sermon. The fall convocation meeting for the senior youth group will be held at St. Timothy's Church, Danville, at 3:30 p.m.

Wednesday morning there will be a service of Holy Communion at 10 a.m. followed by a service of Christian Healing. Child care is provided.

The rector's semi-annual class on the techniques of prayer related to our problems of daily life will start Friday, October 5 from 10 a.m. to 12 a.m. and continue for seven weeks. Child care is provided. These classes are open to any interested persons.

PRESBYTERIAN

Sunday will be "Every Member Visitation Sunday" in the Moraga Valley Presbyterian Church. Morning worship service is held at 11 o'clock in the old Moraga School.

Rev. Ronald T. White, pastor, has chosen as his sermon topic for Sunday, "God's Law of Life: Profane Temples." Church school is held at the same time.

Junior high department meets at the manse at 11 o'clock under the leadership of Mr. and Mrs. David Close. The junior high department will have a picnic at Redwood Canyon Sunday afternoon.

Identical Bible study groups are held on Wednesdays at 10 a.m. and 8 p.m. at the school. There is a nursery for the morning class.

SUBURBAN BIBLE

This Sunday at the 11 a.m. worship service of the Suburban Bible Church, the Rev. Gray Lambert will speak on the theme "The Last Things." His message will be the final in a series of sermons dealing with foundational truths important for vital Christian living. The sermon series has been taken from the Book of Hebrews.

At 9:45 the Suburban Bible Church Sunday school meets for graded Bible study at the Veteran's Building, 3499 Mt. Diablo Boulevard, Lafayette. Classes are available for all ages through adults. Plans are now being made for a young adults Bible class and young adults interested are asked to notify the church.

Activities of the church during the coming week include:

TUESDAY — Ladies Bible class meets at the home of Mrs. Steve Kosach, 767 Solana Drive, Lafayette at 9:30 a.m.

WEDNESDAY — Midweek prayer and Bible study will be held at the Lafayette Community Center Building on St. Mary's Road at 7:15 p.m.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE

"Reality" will be the subject of the lesson-sermon at Christian Science church services Sunday. Paul's advice to the Philippians is included in the scriptural readings: "Finally, brethren, whatsoever things are true, whatsoever things are lovely, whatsoever things are of good report; if there be any virtue, and if there be any praise, think on these things" (Philippians 4).

Among the selections to be read from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy is this brief definition of reality: "Reality is spiritual, harmonious, immutable, immortal, divine, eternal" (p. 335).

The Golden Text is from Deuteronomy (32): "Ascribe ye greatness unto our God. He is the Rock, his work is perfect."

Christian Science churches are located at 3422 Mt. Diablo Boulevard, Lafayette; 22 Orinda Way, Orinda; 2 Eckley Lane, Walnut Creek; Grant and Park Streets, Concord; and Kahrs Avenue and Boyd Road, Pleasant Hill.

CHRISTIAN

Sunday will be the final Sunday of the summer schedule at Lafayette Christian Church, 3419 Golden Gate Way. Worship will be at 10 a.m., and church school for all ages at 9 a.m. The Rev. Darwin A. Mann will be preaching.

Beginning Sunday, October 7, a new church schedule will be instituted. On that Sunday, two morning worship services will be held — at 8:45 and 11 a.m. Church school will be at 10 a.m. Chi Rho Fellowship, for those in sixth, seventh and eighth grades, meets Sundays at 4:30 p.m. High school CYF meets at 6:30 p.m. The fall meetings of the spiritual growth group are being held Wednesdays at 8 p.m. On Thursdays at 9:30 a.m., the morning Bible study group meets at homes of members. Fireside Room of the Hillcrest Child care is provided at the church.

Campfire Leaders Hold Discussions

The Leaders' Association of District II of the Central Contra Costa Council of Campfire Girls held its first meeting of the fall the morning Bible study group on Wednesday evening in the Fireside Room of the Hillcrest Congregational Church on Gregory Lane in Pleasant Hill.

Miramonte Mirror

First League Game Tonite, First Homecoming Friday

By KAREN STAFFORD and JACKIE VILLATA

Tonight is our first league game with Del Valle at Las Lomas and we hope that everyone will be there to cheer our GREAT team on to victory!! Congratulations, boys, for the 3-0 win over Castro Valley last week, and best of luck tonight!

A Parents' Club sponsored dance will be held at Miramonte after the game . . . so be sure to come.

Last Saturday night a group of senior boys viewed the Del Valle game at Acalanes and headed for the Walnut Festival afterward, where they had a thrilling time on those . . . oh, so scary rides—how about it, Fred? Among the boys were: Kent Miller, Phil Grant, Butch Workman, Bruce Nickerson, Bob Williams, Paul Kooyman, Clint DeWitt, Fred Neighbor and "Moose," our foreign exchange student from the Philippines.

The same evening, at the Hungry i in San Francisco, Larry Lahmann and Wendy Wilcox greatly enjoyed the popular folk music of Peter, Paul and Mary. Also at the Hungry i were Dean Hilger and Sue Fernsten . . . standing in line outside, that is. Apparently they missed seeing the show by one person . . . but spent the evening just "touring the city."

October 5 promises to be a big day for all Miramonteans, and especially alumni . . . Why? . . . Miramonte's first homecoming—which will include a home game with Acalanes after school and a dance, in the Spanish theme, from 8 to 11 in the Miramonte gym, to top off the events of the day.

Reigning over the homecoming will be a queen and her four attendants, one from each class. Also, each class is making a float for the game. So . . . REMEMBER . . . SAVE OCT. 5 for our first HOMECOMING— See you there!

This weekend Santa Maria Church will be having its annual Festival and, by the way, it will be the last one that the church will be putting on. Dinner is served on Saturday and Sunday nights, and tickets may be purchased there.

Linda Rice and Mary White had quite a time last Saturday afternoon . . . out on Mary's boat, water skiing. But that wasn't all . . . it seems that the two girls had killed the motor and were stranded out in the Bay for a few hours! All was not lost . . . they were rescued by two fishermen, one of whom turned out to be Ken White's brother-in-law. It's sure a small world, huh, girls?

Judy Zimmerlin had a slumber party last week—and what a party it turned out to be! There was food galore, with everyone on diets the next day. Some of the girls there eating and talking to their hearts' content were 'Barbie Nelson, Karen Thompson, Ellen Flagg, Joyce Thompson, Karen Bentley, Donna Peake, Kathy Adams, Linda Rice and Mary White.

Last Saturday night there was a terrific DeMolay dance. Everyone really enjoyed the dance and the good refreshments! Seen there were loads of Miramonteans . . . including Bill Hamilton and Sandy LaRue, Kathy Adams and Jeff Patten, Dianne Angel and Brian Prinn.

Last weekend was the ever-so-popular Walnut Festival. There were booths galore . . . and OOH those rides, enough to make your stomach turn . . . and, from what we have heard, some stomachs were a little on the uneasy side, and that cotton candy didn't help at all! Some of the hundreds of Miramonte candsy having a great time were Carol Hughes, Beth Shepard, Marilee Snell, Greg Holmes, Barb Bagley, Ron Macario, Bill Cooper, Karen Van Vooris, Liz Finley, Linda Hothkiss, Lana Dressler, Chris Combs, George Hauer, Scott Huntley, Mimi Loomis, Paul Locklin, Buzz Glasky, Bruce Medina, Steve Parry, Larry Lahmann, Paula Corsi, Jane White, Dave Parrish, Pam Pearson and John Reilly.

Young life has begun again for this year and absolutely everyone is invited! They have their meetings every Monday evening at different 'teens houses' . . . the last meeting there was a turnout of over 100 kids!! Don't forget, you all are invited for a GREAT time.

Welcome Wagon Sets Programs for Fall

The September meeting of the Orinda-Moraga Welcome Wagon Club was a luncheon at Marin's, Rheem.

Future program and to special interest groups were organized. Bridge and gardening groups were planned with Mrs. David Elmer as the bridge chairman, and Mrs. Robert Stewart as gardening chairman.

Vice president, Mrs. Robert Stewart, resigned because of other duties, one of which is assistant Welcome Wagon hostess. Mrs. Thomas Phillips of 15 Southwaite Court, was elected vice president.

Mrs. Elma Nielsen will be in charge of the club's civic project. It is to assist the Orinda Beautification Committee with its Christmas decoration of the community.

The next meeting will be a coffee, Thursday at 10 a.m. at Mike Lynn's. Guest speaker will be Les Merrill from Orinda Furniture and Interiors.

LEGAL NOTICE
NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING ON REZONING UNDER THE ZONING ORDINANCE OF THE COUNTY OF CONTRA COSTA FOR A PORTION OF THE ORINDA AREA.
NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that on the 9th day of October, 1962, at the hour of 7:30 P.M. of said day in Room 210, Hall of Records Building, Court and Main Streets, Martinez, California, the Contra Costa County Planning Commission will hold a public hearing on matters pertaining to the rezoning of lands lying within the boundaries of the following maps of Ordinance No. 382: "The Districts Map for the South East Orinda Area, Contra Costa County, California, Insert Map No. 14". The matter of said hearing pertains to the following described property within the unincorporated territory of the County of Contra Costa, State of California, to wit: Lot 1, as designated on the map entitled "Moraga Estates, Contra Costa County, California," which map was filed in the office of the Recorder of the County of Contra Costa, State of California, on November 2, 1936 in Volume 22 of Maps, at page 627.

YOU ARE FURTHER NOTIFIED that the County Planning Commission will consider the request of Glen H. Whalen & William W. Norton to rezone portions of the above described property from the existing Transition Residential Agricultural District (R-A) to Retail Business District (R-B).

YOU ARE FURTHER NOTIFIED that this is a public hearing required under the Conservation and Planning Law, and which said hearing may conclude the hearings before the Planning Commission prior to the presentation of a report and recommendation to the Board of Supervisors of the County of Contra Costa. If this hearing concludes the hearings by the Planning Commission, a report of findings, summaries of hearings and recommendation of the Planning Commission will then be presented to the Board of Supervisors.

THIRD GRADE TEACHER Diana Draheim of the Indian Valley School displays the gifts she received from children of the Nishina Elementary School in Japan. Below, the children spell out their school name on the grounds of their school in Sena, Shizuoka Prefecture, for their American visitor.

WC Teacher Honored by Japanese 'Sister' School

Diana Draheim, third grade teacher at Indian Valley School in Walnut Creek, reaped the rewards of person-to-person diplomacy on her trip to Japan this summer.

As guest of the city of Shizuoka, home of the Nishina Elementary School, "sister" school to the Walnut Creek school, she was given a royal three-day reception by the students, their parents and city officials.

"It was a heart warming experience," smiled Miss Draheim. "As my interpreter said, 'Most people coming to Japan see the shrines and other sights with their eyes, hear the sounds with their ears, but you saw the soul of the people with your heart.'"

"HE WAS so right! I'll never forget those tiny kindergartners, dressed in their school uniforms with their little yellow smocks, their black bangs in a straight line under their yellow southwester-hats, lined up and quirming to welcome me outside their school . . ."

Miss Draheim said she was struck by the marked resemblance between the Japanese school and her own.

"Not only the physical structure, which is low and rambling, like ours. But their educational goals, the curriculum, the methods of teaching—all so much like our own."

"When I remarked about this to our principal, Alan Bartlett, he smiled and said that perhaps it was because both he and the man in charge of education in the Shizuoka prefecture, were both graduates of Humboldt State College in California!"

THE 420 STUDENTS put on a

Homecoming Pits Rivals Next Friday

Miramonte's first annual homecoming will be held next Friday.

A 3:30 p.m. home football game between Miramonte and "arch rival" Acalanes High School, and an all-school dance at 8:30 p.m. in the school gymnasium will be featured.

Special activities are planned throughout the week preceding the game and dance, including selections of three princesses and a queen.

WINNER OF THE queen election will be revealed at game half-time, when a prize will also be awarded to the class with the best float entry.

Other half-time celebrations include exhibitions by the Miramonte marching band, and an "invisible track meet" to be staged by the track team.

A SPANISH theme will dominate float decorations, publicity banners and announcements, and the dance. "Live" music is planned for the dance; name of the band to be announced later.

Dress will be informal—according to the committee, it's to be "dressy cottons" for girls and sports jackets and ties for the men.

St. Stephens Episcopal Gets O.K. for School

An application by C. Corwin Calavan, rector of St. Stephens Episcopal Church, to establish and operate a parochial school in the Orinda area, was unanimously passed by the Board of Supervisors last week.

The property has a 1900 foot frontage on the south side of Via Las Cruces and extends about 250 feet on the east side of St. Stephens Drive.

NEIGHBORS OF the church fought against the school, stating that there was a breach of faith.

They claimed that when homes were bought in the area, they asked about a school and were assured none was planned.

Kenneth Nagel spoke for the church. He promised there would not be more than 140 students.

The school had planned to open the same day as public schools, with 13 students, but was held up by an appeal of the use permit granted by the Board of Adjustment.

WALTER E. CUNHA, who lives next to the church, said that the church has been a good neighbor in the past. However, he said that the proposed school would hurt property values and change the character of the neighborhood.

He contended that a traffic study made by the Public Works Department was not valid because it was made during the summer, when children were on vacation.

BRUCE R. GEERNAERT, who lives behind the church, added that other churches in Orinda had relocated in the Orinda Village area before building parochial schools mainly because neighbors objected.

He said the church was pressuring the board into action.

Geernaert suggested that the board approve a use permit allowing the kindergarten and first two grades, with a maximum of perhaps 25 students, so that a future use permit could take more careful study.

Nagel pointed out that such an arrangement would make student recruitment impossible.

Supervisor Mel Nielsen said he felt the traffic problem would not be materially increased. He moved to approve the use permit and the motion passed, unanimously.

Sun classifieds appear in five papers for one bargain price.

275 Girl Scouts Camp Out

Girl Scout troops in the Morinda neighborhood held a week-end encampment at Redwood Canyon.

Senior scouts as well as seventh and eighth grade troops came into the canyon Friday night and all other troops arrived Saturday.

Two patrols of senior scouts, just back from Round Bay, Vermont, pitched their tents, held open house, and prepared the program for the big Saturday night campfire attended by all troops.

Those troops and their leaders participating in the week-end fun were: Brownies, Troop 279, Mrs. E. Gyllenberg; Troop 197, Mrs. William Bondy; Troop 358, Mrs. D. Bivins.

Intermediates, Troop 71, Mrs. J. Perdue; Troop 3, Mrs. G. deMann; Troop 342, Mrs. F. Bartlett; Troop 278, Mrs. M. Kelley; Troop 228, Mrs. G. Thompson; Troop 318, Mrs. A. Paille; Troop 34, Mrs. C. Wright; Troop 213, Mrs. L. Beecher; Troop 309, Mrs. T. Deahl; Troop 177, Mrs. W. Yager; Troop 270, Mrs. S. Holland; Troop 387, Mrs. F. Cook; Troop 23, Mrs. J. Terrell; Seniors, Troop 204, Mrs. E. Winthers; Troop 146, Mrs. A. Swanson.

The Roundup Patrols were accompanied by their advisor, Mrs. M. W. Loveland. Over 275 Girl Scouts and nearly 50 adults attended the encampment which concluded Sunday morning in time for church services.

Membership Tops For Orinda Assoc.

Over 1000 families and 64 organizations have joined the Orinda Association for the 1962-63 year. Announcement of the all-time high for the association was made by Paul Fleming, membership chairman, Monday night at the regular board meeting.

"We feel gratified that so many oldtimers and newcomers have joined. Since the association is the only representative group for our unincorporated community, we feel that this large membership allows us to more effectively be the voice for and of the people of Orinda," said Fleming.

"Membership are coming in daily. It isn't too late for any Orindan to send the $2 dues to P.O. Box 97," Fleming stated.

Harry Fledderman gave a report on the association's land at the Crossroads.

If possible, the option on an additional eight acres will be renewed until May, Fledderman stated.

Where's the Fire?

All's still quiet on the Orinda Fire Department Front, for which Chief Al Winsor is thankful. Following are the weekly calls:

Monday—4:30 p.m., mutual aid to Lafayette Fire District; 6:12 p.m., Bear Creek Road, first road.

Tuesday—9:35 p.m., El Gavi-lan, garage roof fire.

34 Acre Light District OKed

Borders for a 34-acre lighting district for Orinda was approved by the County Board of Supervisors Tuesday.

The district, a county service area proposed by James B. Simonds, president of the Silverwood Development Company, will serve a new tract at the end of Tahos Road.

At the same time the commission approved the limits of a 56-acre annexation which will bring three tracts into the San Ramon Village Lighting Service Area.

Proponent of the move is Dale R. Hornberger of the Volk-McLain Communities Inc.

Dramateurs Plan New Production

The members of the production committees from the Dramateurs have recently been meeting evenings at the home of Wirtabel Harris, 30 Park Lane Drive, Orinda to formulate plans and procedures for the new 1962-63 season.

The first production will be "Inherit the Wind."

Performances will be held at the Town Hall in Lafayette Friday and Saturday evenings at 8:30 commencing November 16 and ending December 15.

Reservations for this show are now being accepted by phone and the number to call is 254-4419.

Mrs. Harris has been cast in "Inherit the Wind" in the part of "Mrs. Brady." An active member of the Dramateurs, Wirtabel Harris was last seen in "The Grass Harp."

Pine Grove

By CYNDY HAMILTON and LILI KELLY

Hooray for Pine Grove,

Hooray for Pine Grove,

Someone in the crowd

Hooray for Pine Grove!

This is one of the many cries we'll hear from the big crowds we hope to have attending our games. The new pom-pom girls Betsy Brock, Liz Hansen, Betsy Strong, Julie Hafner, Susan Gillis and Karol Cleinenbroich, we hope, will be among these crowds in their traditional black and gold outfits.

This year the student body will be looking up to our Prexy, Ferguson, and our Veep Gus Filice. The other offices have not yet been chosen.

Talking about officers—our principal, Mr. Boyce, welcomed the sixth graders at our first assembly.

We hope they will enjoy their three years at P.G. They seem to realize the difference between P.G. and grammar school.

Guess who is teaching a seventh grade class, as well as an eighth grade class? The well-known teacher, Mr. Hester! An upper classman getting friendly with lower classmen?

I.V. Intermediate

By ELISE LININGER

The students returned to school with many new activities and improvements, and several new teachers.

This year, the language program has been augmented by Spanish records, dialogue pamphlets and two new Spanish teachers, Mrs. Senram and Mr. Gilman.

Other new teachers are: Mrs. Meyer, math and science; Miss Cogan, English-history; Miss McDermott, physical education; Mrs. Schiele, math; Mrs. Tirrell, English, and Mr. Youngs, art.

An assembly was held recently to welcome the new seventh graders. Our principal, Mr. Gaskell, challenged the present eighth graders to equal the accomplishments of last year's eighth grade.

So far, it appears that we are well on our way. The new student council has been formed. Elections for treasurer and secretary will be soon. Susan Kozak and Christina Treguboff are candidates for secretary; Susan Lee, Pam Paul and Peter Talbot for treasurer.

Seventh grade boys seem to be quite healthy, and will, undoubtedly, add to our football, baseball and basketball teams. A school carnival is going to be held on October 5. Each homeroom will furnish a booth. All are welcome to participate in the sponge throwing and other enjoyable activities.

The carnival is one of the ideas used to raise money for a new patio we plan to build sometime in the near future.

This year has begun very well and, with the cooperation of the students and the assistance of all our teachers, it will be one of our best.

From Brubeck to Brobeck

THE FIFTH Annual Monterey Jazz Festival played to packed weekend crowds, with car lovers and jazz fans torn between the trip to the peninsula for a serving of musical smorgasbord or the route to Reno for the annual road races.

The Robert Thamans checked in Thursday at Pebble Beach for a long weekend stay, their sons Steve and Jimmie joining them on Saturday. The boys drove down with Stella Boyle, who was meeting Bob there after a business conference. The Thamans son Steve, a young jazz buff, studies piano with the well-known Willie Baranco, former pianist currently at Tunnel Inn whose followers now find him at the Claremont Hotel.

Dr. and Mrs. L. Bryce Boyer of La Cuesta, billeted at a Salinas motel with their two sons, Kim and Dewey, dined at the new Gobi Chinese restaurant in Carmel and later enjoyed the Saturday night concert in the cool of a fog-ceilinged tent that this year housed the festival.

Jeri and Alf Clement of Orinda were also in the throng, staying with her mother in Carmel . . . Miramonte High music students Paul Hackett and Scott Babcock made the trip with Paul's father, David, and friend Ralph Gleason and came away with all the music men's autographs, including those of Louis Armstrong and Dizzy Gillespie.

CHRIS ALMOND, Pete Parrish, Tom Schwedhelm, Bob Rochester toiled down in their sportscars for the weekend. Everyone agreed that the concluding program Sunday night of Dave and Iole Brubeck's "The Real Ambassadors" proved to be the real highlight of the three-day festivities.

FROM BRUBECK TO BROBECK . . . Over in the Sleepy Hollow section, the weatherman welcomed guests to the William Brobecks' tennis courts for the Mt. Diablo Therapy Center benefit party hosted by the Tanagers.

Here, the theme of Vintage '62 carried out in pink and purple balloons tied like clusters of grapes to the high tennis court fence . . . A wine press decorated the refreshment stand, with wine kegs and barrels in assorted sizes for added decor.

DECORATIONS Chairman Malfred Creagmille's stained-glass colors on her pretty print frock matched the rich tones of her decor . . . Decorating is this gal's special talent and it is at the Creagmilles' Charles Hill home in Orinda where the Planter's Dock statues have gone to hibernate, the couple having made the lucky bid on them some years back.

Guests tripping through an arbor of grapes where tall Helen Pearson took tickets at the entry to the tennis court . . . Just that morning, she had waved husband Jack and son off to Panama on a trip.

New Tanager member Marge Klopfer with her husband Barrett, the Ken Flanagan and Betty and Walt Treanor, all from the same neighborhood . . . Jane and Dick Putnam with Connie and John Goldeen and Jean and Mac Meteer, the latter couple's daughter Laurie breaking her arm while they were AT the party, resulting in their sudden exit, Jean to return later evening . . . Meteer is a member of the board of the Mt. Diablo Therapy Center.

HOSTESS Jane Brobeck, in a blue sheath, shedding her fur-collared and cuffed matching coat to take up the Twist with her young son Bill . . . The mother-son duo winning FIRST prize in the Twist Contest, to the delight of all bystanders and even their competitors.

The colored lights strung around the courts, an Indian Summer touch to the evening that suddenly chilled and sent everyone searching for wraps or swinging their feet on the dance floor . . . Close friends the Bert Waynes and the Heiko de Maneses tying THREE times in the Waltz contest . . . Matson man Wally Shrimplins on the dance floor, his wife Lucille shouldering a cozy white fox stole . . . The Jim Kellys among those winning a Dinner For Two prize, ditto the Charles Angells, the Jim Benneys.

Barbara and Hugh Evely, just back from Japan, chatting with Elsie and Albion Harmon . . . The Evelyrs to host their Gourmet Group from Orinda Community Church at a Japanese dinner tonight with everyone sitting saki-style on the floor.

RUTH HENRY catching customers for tickets for the dinner prizes . . . Dorie Weirenga wearing a white jeweled jacket . . . The Robert Williames, who summured in Hong Kong, the Philippines and Japan, with Marcie and Hank Zacheareas . . . Colorful wine posters adding a dramatic touch, the tremendous task of decorating a tennis court well done, with the handsome guests taking care of any empty spaces.

Valley Art Center Fall Classes Begin Oct. 15

Valley Art Center has announced that plans for its fall schedule of classes are being completed.

This year, the distinguished artists, who will give classes in portrait, watercolor, oil and abstract painting, will include Peter Blos, David Granno, Lundy Siegrist, Earl Pierce, and Katharine Barieau.

In addition, in response to many requests Jack Biederman will conduct a night workshop in photography.

FACILITIES for the various classes have been specially rented by the Valley Art Center at 3381 Mt. Diablo Boulevard, Lafayette.

The actual classes will begin during the week of October 5. However, everybody interested is invited to attend an introductory session of each class the previous week to meet the participating artist and watch him in action.

The center will continue its policy of opening its classes to non-members as well as members of this unique non-profit

County SPCA Board Will Meet Tonight

A board meeting of the Contra Costa Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals was held in the Richmond Library Auditorium.

On the agenda were the need for emergency animal receiving kennels in all cities of the county.

organization which is dedicated to bringing the best in art to the community.

Since enrollment must necessarily be limited, anyone interested in the classes is urged to register early or, if desired, secure additional information, at the Valley Art Gallery, 981 Hough Street, Lafayette.

4H Girl From Moraga Wins Ribbon at Fair

Trudy Mazaika, 15, of Moraga was one of 10 blue ribbon winners at the state 4-H Dress Review held recently at Davis.

Trudy represented Contra Costa County at the event. Fifty-four counties participated.

One of the 10 winners will be selected to attend the annual 4-H congress next month in Chicago.

Trudy is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mike Mazaika, 1205 Camino Pablo in the Orchard Dell area.

Church Architecture Discussed at Convention

The fifth annual conference on "Architectural History" in church architecture arranged by the Northern California-Nevada Council of Churches was held at the Orinda Community Church, Orinda, on Thursday.

This conference is sponsored by the Northern California Chapter of the American Institute of Architects (AIA).

CHAIRMAN OF the Commission on Church Architecture, Frederick W. Whittlesey, announced that the principal speaker was Dr. J. H. Acland, on leave from the University of Toronto, and visiting professor at the University of California, Berkeley, where he is lecturing sions on "Working With Your Architect," led by members of the AIA and leading clergymen.

In the afternoon, there were four workshop discussions on the following themes: "Selection and Use of the Site," "Facilities for Christian Education," "Design for Worship," and "Facilities for Fellowship."

Registration and reservations

Rapid Transit? Here Is Reply

The Bay Area, which is still in the early stages of its development, speaking from a long range view, is strangling in its own vehicular traffic.

This strangulation can and will affect its future commercial, business and residential development, also adversely affecting every East Bay man, woman and child—unless something is done about it.

The solution cannot wait until 1970 or 1975. TO SAY THAT anything short of a true rapid transit system will handle the traffic problems of tomorrow, 1970, 1980 and 1990 is undiluted optimism. To say the cost is high is true. To say it is too high, considering what is at stake for the Bay's future millions is to ignore expert population estimates.

Few people have examined the Parsons Brinckerhoff (New York) report prepared in 1955 for the transit group, or the Tudor Engineering Report prepared for Contra Costa County.

Figures from those firms, never refuted, indicate a mighty population "explosion" is coming, which will make the Walnut Creek area comparable to Berkeley in population, Concord comparable to San Jose, with much similar growth for our other communities.

THERE HAVE BEEN many surveys which support the need for rapid transit—not a temporary palliative involving buses and some exclusive bus traffic lanes scattered throughout the Bay Area.

The proposed bond issue will bring rapid transit to only three counties—San Francisco, Alameda and Contra Costa—but the cost of rapid transit will never be less than at present, barring some unforeseen economic dip of widespread effect.

Many of the other counties which were included in the original plans will see the advantage of quick, smooth transportation in a region which continues to see real estate values climb fast, and the newcomers from other states packing into new residential developments.

In the meantime, Contra Costa will have rapid transit within a few years, just at a time when its expansion will be accelerating.

THE COUNTY with rapid transit first is the county which will have many of its most vexing problems solved, and which will be ready for the challenges which fall to an area only a few miles from fabled San Francisco.

We know that even highway officials admit that their system will not do the job in the future and rapid transit is included in their plans.

Many metropolitan areas in the United States are now considering rapid transit as a solution to their traffic problems, and Uncle Sam in Washington is taking notice.

Rapid transit will cost a lot of money, and we dislike committing ourselves to future indebtedness, even though the cost will fall on the hundreds of thousands of newcomers in addition to present residents of the region.

BUT TAKE a look at the Bay Area and Contra Costa traffic problem now, picture what it will be like in 10 years, and consider whether there is truly any other answer than rapid transit.

Wait a few years? The price tag will soar. Can we afford it? Yes. We can't afford not to have rapid transit.

There is a long list of major cities in the world which survived and prospered because transit was installed in time.

OBJECTIONS to rapid transit may seem persuasive, as long as the very immediate, short-range considerations are allowed to eclipse the long range needs of the Bay Area and its families.

Will Contra Costa get proper representation on the transit board? Will its future demands be ignored? Will people actually use rapid transit?—this question is often raised although many people move here to be near San Francisco, but only occasionally visit "The City" due to traffic headaches.

Will Contra Costa County benefit in proportion to its contribution to rapid transit?

Truly, this is a "commuting county," and will become more so with every passing year—with every passing month!

Should we have rapid transit? You will help decide on November 6.

To vote no will be postponing a positive decision which must be made now.

Gardening Has Pitfalls

With summer and vacations coming to a close, your house and those things inside and outside which make it attractive are getting closer attention from you.

This is why The Sun is including its Fall Home and Garden section in this edition, and expanded home and garden pages will become familiar to you throughout the coming month.

We would like to think that people read our home and garden pages and then go out with new purpose and strong will, without problem or complication.

BUT WE KNOW that isn't true. More accidents occur at home and in the yard than anywhere else. Many of them are serious. The risk is greater now due to those new-fangled tools and machines which make the job easier and better.

A power mower can be a good friend, or it can be a killer. A rock or piece of metal picked up by that whirling blade can become a projectile which injures and maims.

Power mower blades themselves have been known to come loose. Like your car, those mowers need the service of a competent mechanic. Do it now. AN ENTIRELY different danger, but even deadlier, is the insecticide which can inadvertently be left about to become a plaything for a curious child.

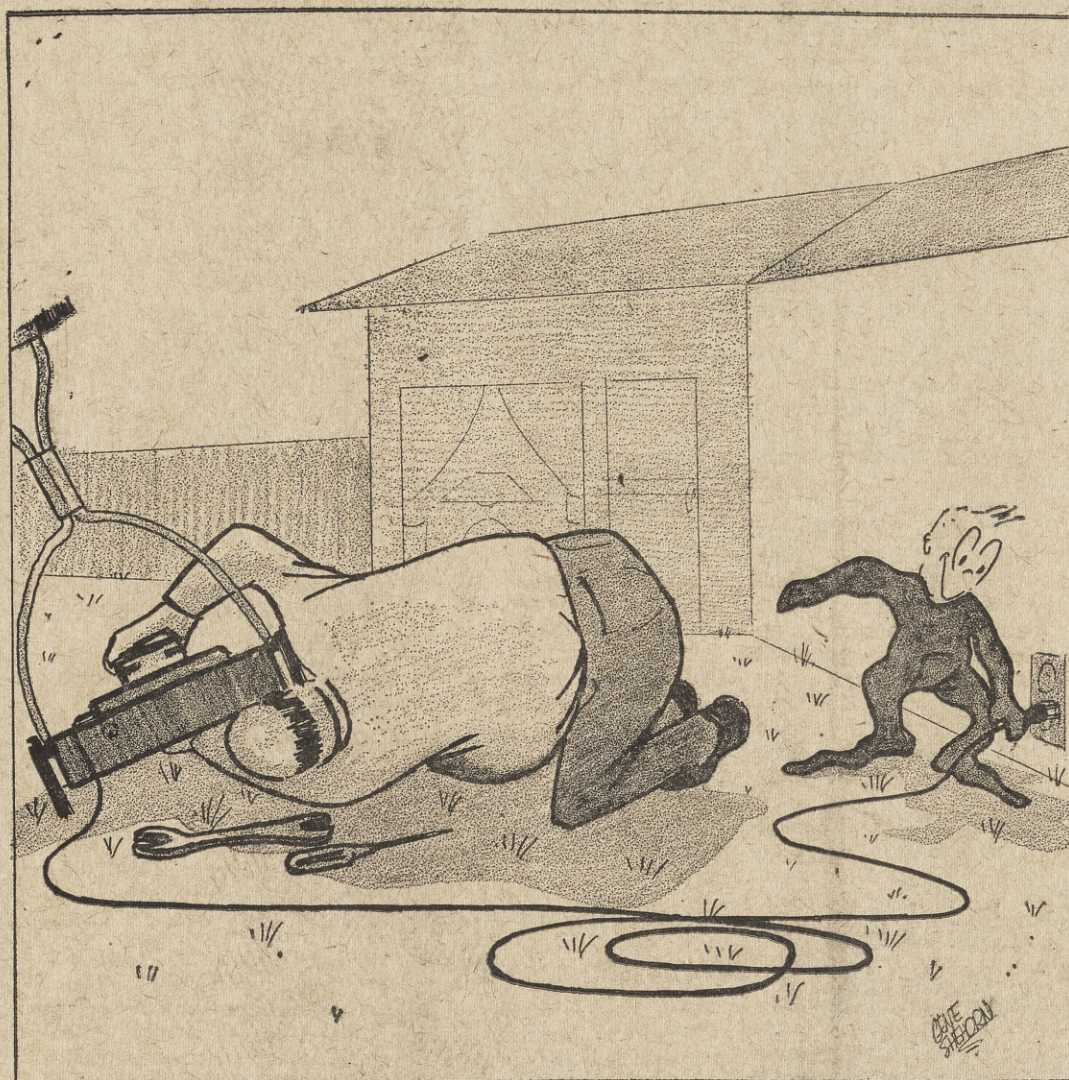

Frequently the results of such a circumstance are reported in the newspapers. Even a rake can be deadly—also sickles, and the pronged tools so familiar to the gardener.

If you think safety is silly, visit a well-run farm sometime. MANY TOOLS familiar to you and scores of others are found there.

Their owners don't waste any time letting you know there are certain things which must be done with tools to avoid accidents.

Farmers, like our central county folk, don't like to miss even one day's work due to an unnecessary accident.

We Like It Here... Like, It Happened In Monterey Last Weekend!

By MARIE MONAHAN

NO GREATER FAN hath Jazz. Or the Monterey Jazz Festival. But they almost lost me. Along with a lot of others...

Press clips preceding last weekend's Big Wail scared some jazz fans from making the trip down for the musical melange.

LIKE they did to the Olympics & World's Fair, the cosmopolitan colymbists have a peculiar habit of building similar events into such successful Obstacle Courses that lots of us lose interest along the way.

So it was with Monterey! PLANNING for a Saturday night show & an overnight stay, we started calling weeks ahead for reservations.

MOTEL, Hotel, Chamber of Com sang the same old song. Only two or three-night guests would rate a room with running charges.

After five bucks blown to Bell, we decided to be brave & chance it anyway, sensibly checking into a remote motel up the road a piece. Many others did likewise, ducking into Salinas en route, where accommodations were plentiful.

With a whole afternoon ahead, we then cruised into Carmel for browsing & a soda at Blum's...

THERE, strung up all over town, were "VACANCY" signs. Many of the motels right in front of the fairgrounds were still begging for business as late as six that evening when we drifted into the treehouse atmosphere of The Spindrift for dinner, a stone's throw from the grounds.

At that point, my Reno guest, bringing up the Olympics' problem with the babbling press, said that if the same motels never did hang out their "No Vacancies," they could only blame it on the city scribes who do more harm than good by giving such Big-Do's too many big build-ups. With those ominous last-minute overtones.

Like the recent Opera Opening, the Jazz Festival is Two Shows in One; the one taking place on stage, the other in the audience.

The amazing Universality of Jazz somehow blends everyone into Instant Buddy-buddies & you even forgive the fellow who spends the evening romping in & out the row with refreshments in tow. Or the gay & giddy socialites playing musical chairs while the artists are performing. But not quite.

For one thing, During the four-hour musical Smorgasbord, there are the magical moments when everyone behaves his best... & to observe a mob of 7500 sitting in pin-drop silence while a performer plies his talents, is quite a thing of beauty to behold.

Especially when the evening is cold, damp, drippy & the coffee is likewise & a long distance away.

We dig those crazy sights: Assorted & ill-assorted characters trooping in with tents, thermoses, blankets, beads, sleeping bags, field glasses, sketch pads, ponchos & ski parkas...

The non-ticket buyers waiting up their own storm outside the gates, the fairground garbage cans serving as bongo drums... Teenagers totem-poleing a telegraph pole from which vantage point they viewed the concert free.

THE Saturday night curtain up with a dull thud on the Festival Ork, their leader moaning low the loss of the Big Band Dance days. (It was no way to fight for a revival!)

The audience moaned low especially during their final number, "Posing," a sort of statues-game song we were singing twenty years ago. Hardly first-act fare for a Jazz Festival.

Certainly more imagination could be used for the opening act on a record-setting Saturday night crowd.

COLLEGIATE Gerry Mulligan putting down his solid gold sax to take over the piano keyboard for a sparkling version of "It Could Happen To You."

DAVE Brubeck's sympatico quartet tangling 'way out with their "Take Five" record hit...

What still worries me is Brubeck. After a stunning session at the piano (head & shoulders bouncing, dancing feet on the pedals) he broached the mike in trembling tones, too breathless to get more than a mere whisper of a few words out at a time.

The audience thought he would keel over.

IN TRIBUTE to Brubeck, he personifies to me, the dignity of The Musician & His Music. Beyond reproach is his work, his realness, his family, his genius... & all that jazz, that Wonderful Wonderful Jazz...

MORE DIGIT

Dear Editor:

One of your readers wanted to know why the California license plates can come up with so many combinations and the telephone company cannot. With any three letters you can obtain nine arrangements. With three letters on any given dial opening one combination is all that is possible. The dial has no way of knowing what your grubby finger wants, it recognizes just the number in that opening. AB, AC, BC, BA, CA, BC, etc. are all 1-1 to the dial mechanism. The dial system has always been all digit, now people have to use it as well. The trouble with all of these anti-digit arguments is that they are emotional and, sometimes, conveyed in ignorance.

COMMUNISM

Dear Editor,

About that Mrs. Coleman. On re-reading her letter I understood why I felt impelled to reply.

Do you note the sentence, "It would be interesting to know why she feels compelled to defend communism?" Get the implication?

Mrs. Coleman should know, first of all, that Communism, so far, has never existed.

It's a noble goal, but the central thesis, that the ends justify the means, defeats—and will continue to defeat—all attempts to genuinely assist the people in the way that counts the most.

Mrs. Coleman misses the point—it is not a defense of Communism to deny that Communism is the evil in the world.

Mrs. Coleman is deceived by the radical right, just as Communist Party members were deceived in the 30's and 40's. Her aims are commendable, theirs are not, but she is naive.

Will she join the underground resistance when we have a military take-over? Will she speak for freedom when we have lost ours?

Mrs. Coleman lives in the U.S. Why doesn't she put her own house in order?

LOOK MAGAZINE

Dear Editor:

The Sun apparently commends Look Magazine for its sanctimonious conclusions on the dismissal of Dr. Drummond McCunn.

It is obvious to anyone concerned that the Look reporter chose to omit quite a few facts—the testimonial dinner for Dr. McCunn, the town-hall meeting at Acalanes High which a thousand people attended.

Evidently the Look reporter did not take the trouble to interview Dr. George Mardikian, George Cracker, Ed Montgomery of the San Francisco Examiner or Frank Izaak, the Hungarian freedom fighter.

Nor did he mention Harmon Howard, board member who to his eternal credit refused to vote for dismissal of Dr. McCunn. I suggest that if Look considered the article worth printing they should have presented more than one view.

CENTER DRIVE

Dear Editor:

As I am sending in my renewal subscription for The Sun—which our family has enjoyed for many years—I would like to say that I was glad to see all your recent publicity on the upcoming Lafayette Community Center Drive.

I feel that during this drive all individuals and groups in the area, whether or not they have given to Community Center in the past, should go all-out in support of this project. This building could also be a place for a teen-age center with many activities run by the young folks under adult supervision.

Since the Community Center will be for everyone, I'd like to take this opportunity to encourage all local people and organizations to contribute generously to this fund.

5-Word Text Taught a Long Lesson

By WALT WRIGHT

I covered my first traffic accident this month. It was an accident you may have read about. It doesn't matter. What happened is no longer news.

And what I want to say is independent of the details which splashed into print one day and then were quickly lost in the tide of other stories—other lives, other deaths.

I learned something, covering that accident. I can't teach it to you, but let me try to explain how it felt to be taught.

I DROVE TOO FAST along the fog-swept road outside of Walnut Creek, but I was late at the scene.

I didn't see the body.

I saw a reporter from a city daily who had beaten me by 20 minutes. When I tried to ride his coat-tails he dumped me right away. Which was fine; let the fledgling find out for himself.

I saw and questioned an officer whose face looked alternately cheery and ashen in the dull glow of blinking red lights and the glare of floodlights.

And I saw the car, cut in half by the power pole it wrapped around.

THESE THINGS I SAW and more, but it wasn't what I saw. It was what I heard.

Two phrases. At the scene someone said, "She's still alive." And back in town, minutes later—"She's dead."

No, I hadn't let myself hope otherwise. I had seen the car; there was no hope. Those few words struck a dull confusion into me for another reason.

Sometimes between the two phrases, sometime when I was driving slowly back to town, to the hospital and then to the police station, I had persuaded myself that it could not be such a simple matter. That this "story," that this life, so far as I knew it, could not begin with three words and with two.

I D-I-D. "She's dead" wrapped it up tight. And I graduated from my confusion with a special education. I had read, as you do every day, of the fact of highway death dressed up in reportage, in testimony, in details, in grand holiday totals. Last month, for the first time, the simple fact came through.

I said earlier that I didn't see the body. More, I have yet to see my first. But I will soon, they tell me. It's only a matter of time. A week, a month... all I can say is that I'll see it soon. I can't say whose it will be.

This is the proper point for the "message". But preaching safety-in-the-abstract doesn't mean much to me anymore.

To care for—to respect—one's own life and the lives of others is learned in many ways. I only wanted to tell you how I began to learn. I got off easy. Some never learn, others learn only at great cost, and a lucky few may learn without pain or sorrow.

I wish you luck in your learning.

CHURCH-GOING

Dear Editor:

In time of crisis, when atheistic communism presses closer and closer, the need to seek spiritual help is ever greater.

An obligation to attend church exists, and the nature of that obligation was never stated more clearly than it was by Carl Sandburg in the following words:

"Protestants have never hammered very much on the duty of going to church. We have said that it is necessary to make the church attractive and interesting so that people will want to come.

"But there are obligations on the part of the people. Not to sit at home listening to the radio; that is too easy. Do something difficult. Go through rain and snow.

You will have to feel you are a part of the greatest organization on earth, that is going to outlast all the rest of them. You've got to feel the importance of your individual participation in its life. You can't go tramping around from church to church to fulfill your obligation.

You've got to settle on one church and throw your life into it and build it up!"

MALCOLM CHAMPLIN.

Under The Sun Rough, Tough Campaign That Affects Your Kids

BY HERMAN SILVERMAN

Perhaps the most important race on your November ballot is for State Superintendent of Public Instruction.

Why? Because this post affects the education of your children and your children's children. Because, once elected, the state superintendent traditionally is re-elected for many, many years. Governors come and go; but superintendents are rarely defeated.

As you know, the two contenders are:

1. Dr. Ralph Richardson, former president of the Los Angeles City Board of Education and a professor at U.C.L.A. He had the most votes in the field of nine who ran for superintendent at the June primary.

2. Dr. Max Rafferty, superintendent of schools in La Canada, Los Angeles County. He trailed Richardson by 77,000 votes.

Race Complicated

The race may be further complicated by the threat of Dr. Cecil D. Hardesty, superintendent of San Diego County schools, who might run as a write-in candidate. Hardesty ran third in the primary. (The Sun endorsed him in June.) He says he will run, if at least $100,000 is pledged to his campaign.

This is not only an important campaign but most interesting. Charges and smears are already flying around. More mud is expected—from both sides.

Aside from their political philosophies, there is apparently a wide difference in their approach to education. Rafferty is considered very conservative in his education philosophy. (Some call it "reactionary," "old fashioned," or other names.)

Richardson will continue along the lines of modern education methods, according to his supporters. He does not advocate changing to the "good old days," they add.

What does professional education think of the two?

Hugh Page, executive secretary of the California Teachers Association's Bay Section, recently said: "The people of California must choose between a program that boys and girls must be told what to think (Rafferty) and one which says they must be taught how to think (Richardson)"

Endorses Richardson

C.T.A.'s 400-member executive council has endorsed Richardson, as has most (or all) education groups in California.

Rafferty, on the other hand, attacks Richardson's qualifications, pointing out he does not hold any California teaching or administrative credentials. (This is true.) Richardson has merely answered that C.T.A., California Federation of Teachers and just about every educational society in the state has supported my candidacy.

"My opponent tries to make light of these endorsements, but the fact is he sought them and couldn't get them," Richardson stated.

Richardson is a Ph.D., as is Rafferty, and teaches at U.C.L.A.

The battle goes beyond educational philosophies and qualifications. Perhaps it shouldn't but it does. Richardson's opponents tag him as a political "liberal." Rafferty has been tagged as very conservative, a John Birch.

Rafferty has "offered $1,000 to anyone who can show any official connection between the Birch Society and myself."

"Why don't you repudiate the Birch Society?" he was recently asked in a press conference.

Repudiation Necessary?

Rafferty answered, "Why should I repudiate anyone who has never endorsed me?"

In any event, most political observers agree that this is the one race on which the Birchers and far-right supporters are working hard—in favor of Rafferty. Who can say whether this will help or hinder him. It is certainly within their prerogative to support whomever they feel will do the best job.

So the spotlight is on this race, for political as well as educational reasons.

Although The Sun does not endorse in most state races, we will do so in this case because it is of direct interest to the welfare of our children. The Sun will recommend the election of Ralph Richardson.

Harvest Tradition

"Tempo di Mietere" read the clever invitations being disbursed by members of Walnut Branch, Children's Hospital of the East Bay. This means Harvest Time with the Italian touch to be celebrated by branch members and friends at the Concord-Mt. Diablo Trailriders' Clubhouse, tomorrow.

Twenty years ago, the branch gave its first harvest time party at the old Art and Garden Center.

The unusual clubhouse in its unique setting on the back slopes of Mt. Diablo will be enhanced with red, green and white decorations executed by Mrs. Robert Wentz.

One of the highlights of the decor will be a painting done especially for the occasion by Ruth Hussey of Alamo.

A buffet dinner will be served at tables around the pool overlooking the tree-studded mountain area.

Honky-tonk piano player, Arthur "Red" Gilham, from the Danville Hotel, will be featured during the cocktail hour from 7 to 8:30. Dancing to the music of Ernie Fodor will continue from 9 to 11 in the new, spacious clubhouse.

Mrs. Robert Bruen, branch chairman, has appointed Mrs. Lewis E. Walton as chairman of the fall function.

Assisting with party plans are Mrs. John Sandman, dinner; Mrs. Lyle Wilcox, invita-

Farm Bureau Women to Meet

Contra Costa Farm Bureau Women's county officers, committee chairmen, and unit leaders, together with county home advisors, will meet at Farm Bureau Hall, Concord, October 5 at 10 a.m.

The Oak Grove group with Mrs. Eugene Day of Walnut Creek, chairman, will host the day with luncheon.

An afternoon program featuring talks by I.F.Y.E. (International Farm Youth Exchange) will feature a youth from Holland and a young lady from Poland.

tions and reservations; Mrs. King Crosno, publicity; Mrs. Gerald Stewart, properties; Mmes. William McDermott and Lloyd Hollis, special arrangements.

All proceeds from the affair will benefit the research work and part-pay program of Children's Hospital.

Swallow Unit To Have Fall Dessert-Bridge

Swallow Unit of the Mt. Diablo Therapy Center has set Wednesday as the date for its fall dessert bridge party.

Mrs. William Nuoffer, ways and means chairman, announces that locations will be the homes of members: Mrs. M. F. Bruzone, Mrs. A.G. Bertolero, Mrs. John Gilcrest, Mrs. Richard Emory, Mrs. Gordon Frazell and Mrs. Bruce Stringer.

Proceeds will go to work for the Mt. Diablo Therapy Center, which provides services in physical, occupational and speech therapy as well as audiology testing and towards the continuance of the sheltered workshop.

President of the unit is Mrs. Ted Barcelona.

Clipped Wings Make Plans

A trio of Lafayette women is among the officers of the Clipped Wings, United Air Lines stewardess alumnae.

They are Mrs. Jack Kirkpatrick, president; Mrs. Joseph Lahey, vice president, and Mrs. Terry Haws, secretary.

The group began their fall season with a luncheon recently at the Galleon, Alameda.

The group's annual bridge marathon is getting under way. There will also be a gin rummy marathon. Anyone interested may call Mrs. Joseph Lahey, 283-2384.

Bridge, Art, Fashions to Be Featured at Terrace

Bridge lessons for beginners and intermediate players will be held at the Terrace Center in October.

A series of 10 lessons for beginners will start on Wednesday at 9:30 a.m. This series will continue on Wednesday mornings (excluding Thanksgiving week) until December 13.

A "play of the hand" series for intermediates will start on Thursday at 9:30 a.m. The teacher for both groups is Mrs. Doreen Trower, a well-known bridge expert from Montclair.

Reservations for either series, at $10 per person, may be obtained by calling the terrace, 935-0121.

Fur-trimmed coats to complement the newest styles will be featured at the weekly fashion luncheon on Monday.

Styles from the Clothes Horse in Walnut Creek will be shown at noon and again at 1 p.m.

Mrs. Stuart Wight of Walnut Creek, a member of the Flicker Unit, will coordinate the showing.

Models will include the Mesdames Allen Griffin (Linnet Jr. Unit), George Landwehr (Linnet Jr. Unit), and Gil Meacham (Hummingbird Unit), all of Walnut Creek.

The works of Rolfe Williams will be displayed at the Terrace during the month of October. Williams has won many awards including "best of show" at the 1959 Walnut Festival show.

He has exhibited extensively in the Bay Area, Southern California, and Utah. A member of the Society of Western Artists, Diablo Art Association, and the Valley Art Center, Williams' subjects are varied. His works include landscapes, seascapes, and figurative personalities.

The Therapy Center is located at 1475 East Newell Avenue in Walnut Creek. Luncheon is served daily, except Sunday, from 12 'til 2 to benefit the Mt. Diablo Therapy Center.

St. Isidore Church Is Given Check

Money raised through bazaars, teas, rummage sales and other benefits was recently presented by St. Isidore's Catholic Church Guild, Danville, to the pastor, Rev. Julius M. Bensen. Mrs. James Fraser, guild president, made the check presentation for the sum of $2000 at the recent board meeting held at her home at 661 Glen Road in Danville.

Expressing his appreciation for the donation, Father Bensen included the entire community in his gratitude, commenting that their support of guild activities had made the contribution possible. The check will go for landscaping within the church property.

Other officers of the guild include Mrs. David Breal, past president; Mrs. Earl Hoffman, vice president; Mrs. Guy Albright, recording secretary; Mrs. Robert Dilling, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Frank Schmitt, treasurer; Mrs. Ada Steer, auditor; Mrs. Lloyd Gunn and Mrs. Clyde Becker, members-at-large.

Committee chairmen for the ensuing year are Mrs. Samuel Mitchell, spiritual; Mrs. Alice Selzer, altar; Mrs. Frank Murray, telephone; Mrs. Lloyd O'Rourke, membership; Mrs. Kenneth Cramton, hostess; Mrs. Larry Davitt, parliamentarian and monthly card party; Mrs. Alfred Holzhausen, amenities; Mrs. Joseph Risse, festival cake booth; Mrs. Ada Steer and Mrs. Bessie Dubost, rummage sale; Mrs. Harry Kerlin, publicity.

Lombardy Has Bridge Class

Lessons in Goren Point Count Bridge are being sponsored by Lombardy branch of the Children's Hospital of the East Bay.

Mrs. G. William Files, noted bridge authority, started classes Tuesday at Fellowship Hall, Orinda Community Church.

The beginners' class meets from 12:30 to 2, while the play-of-the-hand for intermediate and advanced players is scheduled from 2:30 to 4. The lessons will continue each Monday for 10 weeks.

Further information may be obtained from Mrs. Arthur Comerford at 254-4213.

Proceeds will benefit the part-pay program at Children's Hospital.

Pharmaceutical Women Gather

Mrs. Eugene Cherry of Lafayette was hostess recently for the fall meeting of the Contra Costa County Pharmaceutical Association.

Co-hostesses for the occasion were Mrs. John Snyder and Mrs. William McGregor, both of Concord.

Mrs. Leona Court of Lafayette gave a book review on a modern day religious novel, "The Listener," after which refreshments were served.

Mrs. Adrian Gensoul, president, presided over the business session during which plans were formulated for a husband and wife dinner, to be in October at Fatt's in Concord.

Those attending were Mrs. Paul Moffett, Mrs. James Egan, and Mrs. Mervin O'Donnell, all of Walnut Creek, Mrs. Charles Sears, Mrs. Hal Caughren, Mrs. Frank Brookeby, Mrs. Angelo Schenone, Mrs. King Tolles, Mrs. Charles Mortensen and Mrs. Eduard Rockey, all of Concord.

Eligible for membership are wives of pharmacists, women pharmacists, and wives of manufacturers representatives. For further information contact Mrs. Charles Sears, membership chairman, 682-2269.

Dance Classes Are Resumed

A series of social dancing classes conducted by the Acalanes Dance Group were resumed this month under the direction of Irene and Dick Chiocca.

The classes, covering all popular steps, will be held at the girls' gymnasium, Acalanes High School.

The Chioccas have an enthusiastic following in Contra Costa County, having instructed dance classes here for the past 16 years.

The class sessions will be divided into two groups. Those who have not attended previous dance classes at the high school will meet on Thursdays at 8 p.m.

Couples who have attended previous sessions of the Acalanes Dance Group will meet on Tuesdays, at 8 p.m.

The Acalanes Dance Group is an outgrowth of the dance classes which were formerly at Acalanes High School as part of the adult education program.

Information concerning the classes may also be obtained from Tom Rudy, 254-0978, chairman of the dance group.

Sorority Notes

ALPHA PHI

Heading the 1962-63 agenda of events for the Berkeley Alumnae of Alpha Phi was the September swim party recently.

The setting for the affair was the H. G. Prost estate in Ygnacio Valley.

Hostesses for the day were Mrs. W. Ernest Jones, Jr., and Mrs. Clair MacLeod of Piedmont, daughters of the Prosts, and Mrs. David McCosker and Mrs. Robert Ellsworth, both of Orinda, the Prosts' granddaughters.

Combining business and pleasure, a short business meeting followed the informal luncheon, after which members enjoyed the afternoon hours around the pool.

Mrs. Manford Funsten, Orinda, gave a brief report on the summer's Alpha Phi national convention which she attended in Chicago as a delegate from the alumnae chapter.

Presiding at the business meeting was Mrs. O. M. Powell, Jr., newly elected president of the group.

EPSILON SIGMA ALPHA

Gamma Kappa Chapter of Epsilon Sigma Alpha Sorority held its first meeting of the fall season at the home of Mrs. Edron Schneider on Las Felicias Avenue in Walnut Creek.

The new officers for 1962-63 are: president, Gerry Kuhn; vice president, Sue Layfield; recording secretary, Carolyn Catherall; corresponding secretary, Maxine Dignan; treasurer, Verlyn Schneider.

The "We Care" Center was adopted as the main philanthropic project. It was sponsored by Gamma Kappa last year. Several hundred dollars was contributed to assist the "We Care" program. It is operated five days a week at Christian Church, Concord, for multiple handicapped children.

BETA SIGMA PHI

Xi Iota Omega chapter, Beta Sigma Phi, met at the Walnut Creek home of Mrs. Mitch Walker on Wednesday at 8 p.m.

The second meeting of the chapter was held recently at the Danville home of Mrs. Raymond Stewart.

President Mrs. Emmett Laidlaw of Walnut Creek presided over the meeting and introduced a guest, Mrs. Jeanette McClean of Lafayette.

Members present were Mrs. Donald Crosby, Pleasant Hill; Mrs. Martin Rockey, Mrs. Laidlaw and Mrs. Walker of Walnut Creek; Mrs. Daniel Torres, Lafayette; Mrs. Warren Cryer, Mrs. Jerry Smith and the hostess of Danville.

DELTA GAMMA

Mt. Diablo Alumnae of Delta Gamma started the calendar year with a luncheon in the Danish style, on Wednesday at 12 noon.

All new alumnae in the area were welcomed at the affair, at the Walnut Creek home of Mrs. Robert J. Gordon, president.

Christmas Cards Are on Sale by Flamingo Unit

From now until the first of November, the Flamingo Unit of Mt. Diablo Therapy Center will hold its ninth annual Christmas card and paper products sale at open houses at the homes of its members.

Proceeds will be given to the center for its rehabilitation program in occupational, speech and physical and social and psychological services.

There will be a large selection of Christmas card albums to choose from as well as a big variety of paper products.

Also available will be a special therapy card depicting a star of the east pastoral scene with Mt. Diablo in the foreground in tints blue, green and gold. It is designed by L. J. Holzinger of Orinda.

Mrs. William J. Ebke of Walnut Creek, president of the Flamingo, has announced as chairmen for the sale: Mrs. Clarence Garibotti, special therapy card; Mrs. Robert Kuhn, Christmas cards; Mrs. Robert Olcott, paper products. All live in Walnut Creek.

"If you're interested in locating the home nearest in your area, call Mrs. Robert Kuhn of Walnut Creek at 934-0436," said Mrs. Ebke.

ALPHA OMICRON PI

Mrs. Calvin Duncan of Orinda is co-chairman with Mrs. A. R. McAllister of Oakland for an open house tomorrow for Alpha Omicron Pi alumnae.

It will be from 5:30 to 8:30 p.m. at the lovely Lakeview Avenue, Piedmont home of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Jewett.

Proceeds will benefit the Part-Pay Clinic at Herrick Memorial Hospital. Arch of Rubies hospital volunteer group is composed of AOPi alumnae.

Mrs. Dudley Frost of Orinda and Mrs. Donald Hubbard are among those working on plans for the affair.

OMEGA NU

For the sixth year, Alpha Lambda Chapter of Omega Nu manned the hamburger booth at the Walnut Festival. Heading the committee for this year's booth were co-chairmen Mrs. Walter Hutchinson and Mrs. Marvin Van Woerkom.

Proceeds from this endeavor will go to one of the local charity or community service groups to help with their work. A total of $4633.48 has been donated over the past six years to Enchanted Hills Camp for the Blind, Contra Costa Council for Mentally Retarded, Mt. Diablo YMCA and the John Muir Hospital fund.

The group voted this year to again help the John Muir Hospital building fund.

CAROL ELAINE MACY's engagement to Dale Carson Ansley was announced recently by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harold E. Macy of Lafayette. Her fiancée is an engineering student. October 13 will be the date of the wedding. Photo by John R. Harris

House of Dior Salutes Israel

Carol Foster Weds Lt. (J.G.) Richard Blaser

Carol Audrey Foster, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas William Frederick Foster of 31 Amberwood Lane, Walnut Creek, and Lt. (j.g.) Richard Alan Basler, USNR, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Basler of Oakland, were married recently at 2 p.m. in the Most Precious Blood Catholic Church, Concord.

The bride wore a full length silk organza Bianchi model with a cummerbund and chapel train. The elbow length veil was held with a headpiece of flowers. Carol carried stephanotis with orchids. Her necklace was the groom's gift, a double strand of pearls.

Matron of honor, Mrs. Gerald Fender of Concord, wore a blue organza gown over taffeta.

Bridesmaid Patricia Foster's gown was identical. Both attendants carried nosegay bouquets of pink roses. Mr. Foster gave his daughter away.

Best man was the groom's fraternity brother, Gary Anderson, Lt. USMC, of Camp Pendleton.

Ushers were William Fullendorf and Gerald Fender.

The bride's mother wore a flowered silk with a white orchid corsage pinned to it.

The groom's mother wore beige lace over chiffon and green cymbidium corsage.

Reception was in the garden of bride's parents' home. Both church and reception were adorned with white stock, daisies and pink rosebuds.

Honeymoon destination of the new Lt. and Mrs. Richard Basler was not disclosed.

The newlyweds are now at home in Inglewood where he is a Lt. (j.g.) in the supply corps of the Navy.

Carol graduated from Pleasant Hill High School, and attended Diablo Valley College and the University of California, Berkeley.

Richard went to Washington High and U.C.

Suburban Women See Laf Frantics

Fifty members and guests of the Lafayette Suburban Women's Club will attend Laf Frantics tomorrow.

Mrs. Malcolm Welsh, chairman of the couples section and Mrs. Charles Kennett will assist with serving refreshments after the performance at the Community Center Building.

Suburban Women's Club traditionally sponsors Laf Frantics, a yearly fund raising event for the Community Center.

Mrs. Gordon Frazell, chairman of the arts unlimited section has scheduled several programs for the coming year.

First of these is a tour of the Antiques - Decorators show today at the Hotel Claremont.

Once a month, stimulating programs are planned including a book review, visiting the chrysanthemum show and a Christmas decorations show.

The first social event of the year was the annual fall party at the Walnut Hills Country Club. Mrs. Dale Fink, chairman of the social committee used a fall theme for decor. Mrs. Robert Tronvig was in charge of reservations. Mrs. Roy Perdue helped with invitations. The social hour and buffet dinner were followed by an evening of dancing.

Mrs. Joseph Van Overveen, vice president, announced that October 18 will be a combined meeting of the Juniors and Seniors and guests. Rev. Jan Marinissen will speak to them about rehabilitation of prisoners. Rev. Marinissen works with inmates of San Quentin.

Matinee Lunch Starts Wednesday At Orinda

A ladies matinee luncheon program started at Orinda Country Club Wednesday. Jane Nickols, a musical comedy artist presented "Musicals in Miniature." She was accompanied by Norma Porter at the piano.

Sally Strom To Teach Dancing

Registration for a new dancing class in Lafayette will be held tomorrow in Lafayette Masonic Hall from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. Sally Strom will hold Saturday classes in all types of dancing at the hall.

Miss Strom, 25, has a professional dancing background which includes 13 years of experience. She has won many honors during this time, as have her students.

From 1950 to 1952 she studied and taught dancing in Vancouver B.C., where she was featured soloist for the Shrine circuit, traveling throughout western Canada.

In 1951 Miss Strom was awarded a scholarship from the Vancouver Civic Ballet Society, being the first American ever to win this coveted Canadian award. She was also given three other awards: first place in tap; second place in national dancing, second place in ballroom, and first place in Spanish dancing.

In 1952 she entered a group of her Canadian students in the Pacific National Exposition in Vancouver and won first place.

Later in 1952 Miss Strom returned to her home in Bellingham, Washington, where she opened her own studio. She operated this studio full-time for a period of six years. Her students appeared in many stage and television shows.

In 1956 she sent one of her students, Miss Pamela Nelson, to Hollywood. Miss Nelson has appeared on national television shows.

In 1957 Miss Strom took a group of 10 of her students, aged 8 to 12, to Hollywood, where they appeared on an annual telethon, "Rocket to Stardom." Competing against hundreds of others, Miss Strom's troupe won the first place award.

In 1958 she was awarded a certificate of merit from the Veterans of Foreign Wars for six years of entertainment service in Washington to the Northern State Hospital for the Mentally Ill.

In the last three years Miss Strom (Mrs. Frazier) has taken time out to marry and bring her own family (an eight months old daughter). They plan to make their home in Lafayette.

'Counseling Mother' To Be Topic

"Counseling the Unwed Mother" will be the topic of Miss Jeanette Baker, a social worker from the County Social Service Department. She will address the Diablo Adoption Auxiliary Wednesday.

The meeting will convene at 10 a.m. at the home of Mrs. Paul Allen, 135 Cerezo Drive, Walnut Creek. A discussion period will follow.

At the September meeting, the auxiliary welcomed as guests Mrs. Edgar Beazor of Danville and Mrs. Cawley of Concord.

Activities for the coming year were planned. The main project will be the preparation of a packet of information about services available to unwed mothers and to prospective adoptive parents.

This will be distributed to ministers, lawyers, doctors, and others in the county who might have need of this information in their counseling work.

Anyone interested in attending the October meeting may make arrangements by calling Mrs. Albert Bower, 682-8157, or Mrs. Paul Allen, 935-1933.

Questions pertaining to adoption or any specific phase of adoption may be addressed to P. O. Box 61, Walnut Creek.

Oak Springs Pool Has Buffet-Dance

Fifteen portraits and still life in oils by Jean Beidler, Orinda artist who recently moved to Oakland, were exhibited at Oak Springs Pool Association's annual buffet dinner dance recently.

Another highlight of the evening was the presentation of a gold wrist watch to Ted Miller upon his retirement. He was custodian for the pool for 18 years.

Dana Cook Is Bride of Harold Thompson Couch

A lovely formal double ring ceremony at St. Stephen's Episcopal Church in Orinda united in marriage the former Dana Kathryn Cook and Harold Thompson Couch.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Lyle Cook, 39 Donna Maria Way, Orinda. She is a graduate of Miramonte High School, and will resume studies this fall at Scripps College, Claremont.

Harold is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel T. Couch of Menlo Park. He is a graduate of Princeton University, and received his master's degree from the University of Southern California. He is now working on a PhD in chemical engineering at Cal Tech in Pasadena.

The Reverend William Franhuizen, vicar of St. Giles' Episcopal Church, Moraga, officiated. Dana was given in marriage by her father.

Her gown was of white dul-cette satin with skirt flowing back to form a peacock train. It had a fitted bodice and three-quarter length sleeves. The mantilla veil was edged with antique Bruges lace.

Dana's bouquet was of white butterfly roses.

Maid of honor was Connie Cook, the bride's sister.

Bridesmaids were Nancy Backman, Los Angeles; Margaret Couch, the groom's sister; Barbara Thompson, Helena, Montana; and Irene Waschmirth, Orinda.

Their gowns were of emerald green satin with bell skirts, fitted bodices. Their matching pillbox hats were trimmed with tulle. The attendants carried bouquets of white carnations.

The groom's father was best man. Ushers were Curtis Crandall, Richard Faciana, Daniel Krause, John Miller and Robert Ringland.

The beautiful brunette bride wore a red and pink woven cotton with matching accessories for her going-away outfit. After a 10-day Hawaiian honeymoon, the newlyweds returned to Pasadena to make their home until completing their studies.

Golden Wedding For Mooneys

Mr. and Mrs. Archie J. Mooney, 25 Bishop Lane, Walnut Creek, were honored recently on their golden anniversary.

Their daughter and son-in-law, Dr. and Mrs. Charles J. Hart, 35 Bishop Lane, Walnut Creek, held a reception which was attended by the Mooneys' many friends.

Gold and white was the color scheme in the garden and pool area of the Hart home. Mrs. Mooney wore a pale gold dress and corsage of white carnations tied with gold ribbon.

Kathy Hart, the Mooneys' granddaughter, attended the guest book and helped greet guests and serve refreshments.

She was assisted by Freyita Hill, Linda Vaughn, Marcia Skinner, Kathleen Moore, Peggy Schultz, Michelle Mohr, Patricia Mohr, Jo Mohr, Denise Mohr and a special guest, "Gundi," who is visiting from Vienna, Austria, and making her home with the Arthur Mohrs.

Stanford Frosh Party

Stanford Women's Club recently gave a swim party honoring entering Stanford freshmen from this area. The traditional event was at the B. A. Banker home in Diablo this year.

Among those from the central county who were seen "off to the farm" at the soiree were:

ROSEMARY NIOSI—daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy J. Niosi, 11 Moraga Court, Orinda. Rosemary is a Miramonte High School graduate.

Among her achievements are two scholarships: one from the state and one from Stanford.

She received a Bank of America award in English. The American Association of University Women gave her an award for the highest girl's average at Miramonte.

Rosemary sings in the Northern California Honor Choir and belongs to a mixed octet called "The Octet." They sing for student activities.

Other interests include ballet and a square dancing club, The Quadrils. During the summer, Rosemary worked at the Berkeley Recreation Camp, Lake Tahoe.

BARBARA DIETZ—Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fredrick C. Dietz, 1107 Glen Road, Lafayette. A graduate of Acalanes High School.

Barbara received a California Savings and Loan award for "the outstanding student of the year from Acalanes."

She is a lifetime member of California Scholastic Federation and a joint selectee for the Daughters of the American Revolution citizenship award.

At Acalanes, she was secretary of Girls' League and treasurer of the rally committee.

Barbara is a member of Daphne Branch of Children's Hospital of the East Bay, and served as treasurer.

This summer, she was counselor at Sierra Woodlands Girl Scout Camp. Other interests including skiing and traveling. Barbara was in Europe with her family in 1956. She attended summer school in Bavaria in 1960.

LINDA BRIDGES—Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bridges, 3972 Happy Valley Road, Lafayette. She is a graduate of Acalanes High School.

Linda is a life member of C.S.F., a joint selectee for the D.A.R. citizenship award, and Honors at Entrance from the University of California.

At Acalanes, Linda was Girls' League president and a member of Los Amigos Service Club.

She is active in a modern dance group, and a member of the Claremont Country Club tennis team.

Linda is past secretary of Daphne Branch of Children's Hospital.

This summer, Linda spent traveling in Europe, and visited 12 countries.

DAVE DEUBNER—The son of Mr. and Mrs. Julia C. Deubner, 85 El Gavilan, Orinda. A graduate of North Eugene High School, Eugene, Ore.

Dave's first three years of high school were at Miramonte. He is a Merit Scholarship winner to Stanford. Last year, he was the best miler and half-miler in track in the state of Oregon.

Other interests include camping.

JIM CRAMER—The son of Mr. and Mrs. Jerome P. Cramer, 50 Los Alamos Court, Alamo. A graduate of San Ramon High School.

Jim received a Bank of America award in Social Studies. He's a C.S.F. life member and received a 1962 achievement award for leadership and citizenship.

At San Ramon, Jim was a member of the band, tennis team, chief justice of the student court, and student council.

Jim's other interests include skiing and hiking. He has spent seven weeks this summer back-packing into the High Sierra, and as a cook for the Sierra Club Base Camp.

BOARDMAN "BREEZIE" MOORE—Son of Mr. and Mrs. Boardman W. Moore, 839 Topper Lane, Lafayette. A graduate of Acalanes High School.

Breezie received a scholarship from the music department at Acalanes, a Bank of America award and Arian Award, all for music.

He was "first chair" in the Northern California Honor Orchestra.

Among his many interests, tennis ranks high.

PETER STIMPSON—The son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles R. Stimpson, 20 Montecito Drive, Danville.

Peter graduated from Orine School, Arizona. His first three years were at San Ramon High, where he was sports editor of the school paper.

He likes to ski and has competed in track and field events. His specialties are the broad and high jumps.

This summer, Peter visited his grandparents in British Columbia.

SIDNEY HILLYER—Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Hillyer, 1050 Manzan Place, Lafayette. A graduate of Acalanes.

Sidney couldn't attend the party since he was at a college preparatory session for Young Life at the Malibu Club, British Columbia.

Sidney won a Bank of America achievement award in Liberal Arts. He was an American Field Service Student in Germany the first semester of her senior year. Other interests include dancing and being an a capella accompanist.

WILLIAM "BILL" MILLER—Son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur C. Miller, 3583 Boyer Circle, Lafayette. Bill is a graduate of Acalanes High.

He was an A.F.S. exchange student and spent a summer in Switzerland.

Bill was in the top academic group at Acalanes. He participated in cross-country. He was in the accelerated science and great books program.

ON THE MOVE is Miramonte halfback Bob Williams in last Friday's game at Castro Valley. Williams picked up four yards on this sweep. Miramonte won its second game, 3-0.

Field Goal Gives Mats Second Win

By BILL SMITH

Undefeated Miramonte battles undefeated Del Valle tonight at 8 on the Las Lomas field in their first league game of the season. The Mats chalked up their second non-league win last week when fullback Jim Lewis kicked a 23-yard field goal in the final tense minute of play to break a scoreless tie and give the Mats a 3-0 edge over Castro Valley.

Miramonte's defensive unit once again stood out as the team recorded their second shutout in a row.

Head coach George Galli had praise for Kent Miller, Bruce Nickerson, Norris Widener, Bill Cooper, and Clint DeWitt. He credited the team's defensive development to line coach Don Phillips.

OFFENSIVELY, the Matadors rolled up 146 yards to Castro Valley's 81, but bogged down in two scoring opportunities after moving the ball to the Spartans' three-yard line. The Mats haven't completed a pass in either of their two pre-season games.

Miramonte made its most impressive offensive push in the last period. Hardly had the final quarter begun when wingback Widener took the ball on the Mats' 21 and sprinted 45 yards to the Spartans' 34.

After moving the ball to the three-yard line, Miramonte was unable to score. The Matadors regained the ball when Castro Valley was forced to punt from their five-yard line.

Taking the punt on the 33, Bob Williams followed a wedge of blockers to the 15. With time running short, Williams and Pete Boyle advanced the ball to the five-yard line.

It was fourth down and 35 seconds left in the game when Lewis, the son of Miramonte's principal, was called in to kick. The pressure was on him as he lofted the ball through the crossbars from the 13-yard line, evoking a wild frenzy among his teammates and the Miramonte rooters.

Late Score Gives College Park a 7-7 Standoff
College Park eyes its initial win of the season in its final non-league game today at Skyline of Oakland.

The Falcons scored a last-period touchdown and added the precious extra point to deadlock a revived Alhambra team, 7-7, in an inter-league battle at Pleasant Hill High School last Friday night.

THE FALCONS had opened the season with a 7-0 setback at the hands of Acalanes.

College Park's foe today gave Del Valle, winner of nine straight games, a big score before becoming the Trojans' 10th victim, 20-13, last week.

Dick Larscheid, another in a long line of Larscheid football players, kicked the PAT that gave the Falcons the tie game.

Del Valle Struggles for 10th Straight Win, 20-13

By DAVE ANDERSON

The eyes of the mid-county sports world will be turned toward the Las Lomas field tonight for one of the most crucial contests of this still-young season.

The Matadors of Miramonte High, bidding for the first Foothill League title in the history of their school, will tangle with the Trojans of Del Valle, who are out to cop the title in their first year of league competition.

All of this title talk may sound a bit premature, but on the basis of the two practice records of each team, it seems justified.

Miramonte has pulled off two stunning victories over teams favored to beat them. In the season opener, the Matadors blanked Pittsburg, last year's champs of the DVAL-CCD, 7-0.

LAST WEEK, against Castro Valley, Miramonte turned the same trick, by defeating the pre-season favorites of the Hayward Athletic League, 3-0.

In tonight's contest, it will clearly be an irresistible force against an immovable object, as Del Valle has scored well in both of its games, beating Novato 26-0, and Skyline last week, 20-13.

The score doesn't indicate the half of it, though, as Skyline was clearly out to break Del Valle's nine-game winning streak.

Del Valle took the opening kickoff and began to move downfield quickly eating big chunks of yardage on each play. It looked like the Trojans could move at will. However, a Bob Kovats' aerial turned into a bombshell as Skyline defensive end Craig Breschi picked off the errant pass and outran everyone for a 90-yard touchdown romp. The conversion was missed.

THE TWO teams battled on even terms throughout most of the half until Del Valle broke into the scoring on a quick touchdown of their own.

With the ball on the Trojan 44-yard line, Bill O'Toole ripped off a gain of 11 yards, then skirted left end on the next play for 45 yards and the score. The PAT was wide.

Late in the third period, with the score still deadlocked, 6-6, Skyline put on an impressive offensive march for some 70 yards.

Behind good running and some well-timed screen passes off the arm of Rick Chalk, Skyline moved to Del Valle's three-yard stripe. On the first play of the fourth quarter, Dan Foster plunged off right tackle for the tally. With the conversion good, the score was 13-6, Skyline.

O'Toole, a Trojan workhorse all night, took the kickoff and returned it to the Del Valle 36. On the next play, Kovats uncorked a long pass to O'Toole who caught it on the run on the Skyline 35 and sprinted to paydirt, climaxing a 64-yard scoring pass play. Mal Cameron converted on a dive over right tackle.

AFTER AN exchange of punts, Del Valle started on its own 49 and moved steadily downfield with O'Toole and Cameron gaining 10 to 12 yards per carry. Aided by a holding penalty, Del Valle got to the Skyline two-yard line, where Cameron scored on a short plunge. Cameron again dove for the PAT and the score was 20-13 in favor of the Trojans with 2:35 left in the game.

Despite the Trojan victory, Coach Jerry Bellon noted that his team was lax in some of their overall play. He did single out Bill O'Toole for a fine effort as the fleet Trojan halfback carried 17 times for a nine-yard average.

Bellon said that to stay in tonight's game, his charges would have to improve at least 100 per cent over last week's play.

Knights Tie Diablo, 6-6

By ROGER JERNIGAN

BRIAN NISSEN, Las Lomas halfback, scampered 56 yards to paydirt after just four minutes of the first period for the Knights' only score as they battled to a 6-6 deadlock with the Red Devils from Mt. Diablo last Friday night in Walnut Creek.

Tough line play highlighted the game and kept offensive fireworks at a minimum.

The Devils held Las Lomas to three first downs, but got only eight in return.

On the ground, the game was practically even with the Devils holding the edge, 120-119.

In the air the Devils dominated, connected on five of eight passes for 69 yards. Las Lomas attempted only one pass and it fell incomplete.

The Red Devils scored on a 40-yard pass from quarterback Jim Brian to halfback Dale Jones early in the third quarter.

LAS LOMAS scored on the second play from scrimmage as Nissen blasted through right tackle, dashed up the middle of the field, and finally outran three Devil pursuers for the tally. The all-important PAT was short and to the left.

In the final moments of this gridiron battle, Las Lomas gave up the ball on downs and the Devils took over on the Knight 40-yard line with three seconds to go. Brian faded back, got good protection, swept to his left, ran up to the line of scrimmage and hurtled a lofty spiral to Jones that hung a bit too long in the air. It gave Knight defender Jim Roessler time to break it up as the pigskin bounced off the finger-tips of both players.

LAST PLAY
(See story)

A very strong Knight forward wall bulwarked by Bill Staley, Otto Shatz, Dan Fagundes, Steve Alexakos and Dan Cotlow effectively contained the Devil offense for the remainder of the first half.

As the third quarter got underway, the Red Devils went to the air and Brian bootlegged to his right, pitching a perfect pass to Jones unmolested to the 10, who dashed into the end zone for the tying TD.

An offside penalty and an incomplete pass from alternating quarterback Mike Shoemaker nullified the point after attempt.

With the score all knotted at 6-6, both defenses went to work.

KNIGHT PUNTER Otto Shatz kept the Devils at bay with his booming kicks and was backed up by a fierce Las Lomas line which at one time in the final period, forced the Devils to punt from their own 2-yard line after a series of losses.

Shoemaker was a standout for the Devil defense and received credit for 10 tackles and two assists.

In the final moments of this gridiron battle, Las Lomas gave up the ball on downs and the Devils took over on the Knight 40-yard line with three seconds to go. Brian faded back, got good protection, swept to his left, ran up to the line of scrimmage and hurtled a lofty spiral to Jones that hung a bit too long in the air. It gave Knight defender Jim Roessler time to break it up as the pigskin bounced off the finger-tips of both players.

Antioch Subdues San Ramon, 20-7

San Ramon will be seeking its first win of the 1962 campaign and a good start in quest of the Foothill League football title when they play twice-tied Alhambra tonight in Martinez.

Last Friday night, powerful Antioch rolled past the Wolves, 20-7, at Danville in the DVAL-CCD, DVAL - FAL inter-league clash at Danville.

After a scoreless opening quarter, the Panthers scored twice in the second period, paused as Lincoln Arthur's 73-yard run put the Wolves on the scoreboard and then posted the clincher early in the fourth quarter.

Arthur scored two touchdowns the previous week as San Ramon bowed to Livermore, 28-26.

ANTIOCH DROVE 80 yards in nine plays for its first score with Jim Fluety getting the score from eight yards out midway through the quarter.

In the fading minutes of the first half, the Panthers drove 85 yards in just six plays. With just a minute left, Ron Edwards broke the game open on a 20-yard run to pay dirt.

The home-standing Wolves got back into the game following the second half kickoff.

On the second play from scrimmage, Arthur broke off left tackle and then just outdistanced the Antioch defenders.

With Bob Crutcher's conversion, the Wolves trailed, 13-7, with almost two full quarters to go in the game.

Neither team threatened again until Antioch started a 75-yard drive early in the final period. Edwards scored the clincher from 17 yards out on a sweep.

O'Toole and Cameron-- They Spark Del Valle

By HEC HANCOCK

The moment of truth for the new kids on the Foothill Athletic League block is rapidly approaching for the Del Valle Trojans. Undefeated in varsity competition, the Trojans hope to make their debut in the FAL against the highly-rated Miramonte Matadors a successful one.

After sweeping to an undefeated season (eight games) last year, Del Valle picked up where they left off, and has notched two more victories in as many outings thus far this year.

Sparkling the Trojan bid to climb the heights are a bevy of sparkling young performers.

However, foremost in the Del Valle stable of talent are two superb young athletes—Bill O'Toole and Mal Cameron. How well these young men do against the formidable opposition they will be facing the rest of the season will in a large measure have to do with how the Del Valle star will rise.

O'Toole is a tremendous all-around athlete. A senior, Bill has won block letters in four sports at the Tice Valley school. He has played halfback on the Del Valle football team since its inception. In track, he competed in the 100-yard dash, the 220-yard dash, the high jump and the relay. He was centerfielder on the Trojan baseball club. Rounding out his athletic accomplishments, he played forward on the Del Valle basketball team.

Most observers agree that it's in football that Bill has shown the most potential for future greatness. He carries 170 pounds on a well-proportioned frame, and runs with the speed and power so necessary for outstanding success on the gridiron.

Cameron, the second half of this one-two punch, mans the fullback position for the Trojans. Mal is another all-around athlete. He was co-captain of the track team, having tossed the shotput and discus as well as running a leg on the relay team. He played center on the Trojan quintet, to round out his athletic performances.

Cameron is the battering ram of the Del Valle attack. He is the Mr. Inside who can slam for those tough yards between the tackle positions.

Both Cameron and O'Toole go both way, playing both offense and defense. Besides their chores in the offensive backfield, both play in the defensive secondary.

Cameron is a bruising corner linebacker. O'Toole plays the left safety spot to utilize his fine speed to fend off any deep threats posed by opposition passers and runners.

In recalling how the Del Valle football fortunes have grown, Cameron goes back to a game played during the first year the school fielded a team.

Playing freshman football, the Trojans had lost their first two encounters. In the third game they had salvaged a tie. In their fourth game they came up against Piedmont, and at the half, found themselves 'trailing', 19-0.

Coming back after the intermission, the Del Valle team began to find themselves, rallied and finally won the ball game 20 to 19.

"Coming from behind in that game against Piedmont is one of the biggest thrills I've experienced; I've always felt that the Piedmont game was the turning point for us. We've been able to keep going up from that game," comments Cameron.

FAL 'Big Game' Features Miramonte and Del Valle

Trojans Seek 11th Win In Row Tonight in WC

By HEC HANCOCK

This evening, the aspirants for the Foothill Athletic League championship get down to serious business, as six of the seven teams of the loop swing into action against each other.

In the quest for the crown currently worn by the defending champion, Las Lomas, San Ramon, Miramonte, Del Valle and Piedmont are all figured to have an excellent chance to crash the FAL throne room.

In fact, no one is completely discounting Las Lomas' chances of repeating, as they are accorded the "dark horse" role for the 1962 campaign.

Only Acalanes and Alhambra are felt to lack the guns to seriously challenge for the top spot. AT THE OUTSET of league action, the coaches and observers are agreed on at least one point. There seems to be no argument that the league overall is considerably improved over last year. A quick check of the records that the teams compiled in last year's non-league play as compared to this will clearly demonstrate the point.

Last year, only Miramonte and Las Lomas had been able to win any of their pre-league encounters. A check of the records thus far this year reveals that Miramonte, Piedmont and Del Valle boast perfect records of two victories and no defeats. Alhambra, while yet to break into the win column, has also yet to taste defeat, as they have tied both of the opponents they encountered.

Acalanes has won one while also losing one. Las Lomas dropped a close one to Pleasant Hill and a tie. San Ramon has lost two, but both were to very strong clubs, with the margin of defeat small.

Upstaging their more established league neighbors, Del Valle will be the center of attraction as they clash with the undefeated and unscored on Miramonte at Las Lomas field in Walnut Creek this evening. The contest figures to have much to do with deciding the eventual outcome of the FAL.

AS THE NEW Del Valle club debuts in FAL play, there is considerable interest in how they will do against their "big brothers."

Coming off an undefeated season last year, the Trojans have added two more victories to their string of 10 wins. Some have questioned the caliber of some of the Trojans' opponents. However, none can deny that the Del Valle bunch have done all that could be expected of them, as witness the undefeated record in varsity play.

The Trojans appear to be a well-balanced club. They have good size and fine performers in the line in Scott Smith, Ken Roberts and Mike Valcke. Their backfield presents fine speed and power in Bill O'Toole, Mal Cameron and Cliff Schroeder. Bob Kovats runs the club well, and his passing gets the job done.

Miramonte appears to also be a solid contender to go all the way. Coach George Galli, in his first year at the Orinda school, has welded a fine defensive unit. While lacking size, such individuals as Butch Workman, Clint DeWitt, Phil Grant and Paul Kooyman make the going real tough on opposing runners. Senior fullback Dean Hilger sparks the Matador attack.

It could well be that the winner of this one could be right up there around the No. 1 spot when the season winds up action.

Over at Acalanes, the Dons and the Las Lomas Knights have at it in their traditional "big game."

Although neither club has been overly impressive thus far this season, both have demonstrated excellent defensive units.

NEITHER school has generated much, as yet, in the way of offensive thrust, however.

The Knights' forward wall, generally acknowledged as being one of the best if not the best in the league, is big and tough. Heading up the line are a nucleus of veterans. Tackles Bill Staley, Dan and David Cotlow; guard Rick Laven comprise the heart of the Knight forward wall.

Injuries have hurt the Knights. Bob Kreider, quarterback, and Gary Ford, end, have been sidelined, at least for tonight's game.

The loss of Krieder particularly has been a severe setback to the Las Lomas attack.

Acalanes doesn't have the size up front that its rivals have, but they do have a set of very determined young men. Jeff Davis, Dave Perry, Dick Holden and Mark Mahler have given ground very grudgingly to their opponents.

In the backfield, Bob Brabant, Mike Hallock and Jan Van Loben Sels have handled most of the work. If Doug Sanderson can get the passing game working, the Dons' offense will move into high gear.

After knocking heads with two of the toughest teams in Northern California, the San Ramon Wolfpack takes on the Alhambra Bulldogs. Their showing against this opposition has been very commendable.

SAN RAMON will go largely with a running offense that features the tremendous speed of halfback Lincoln Arthur. Letterman Chuck Ferreira will direct the offense from the quarterback position.

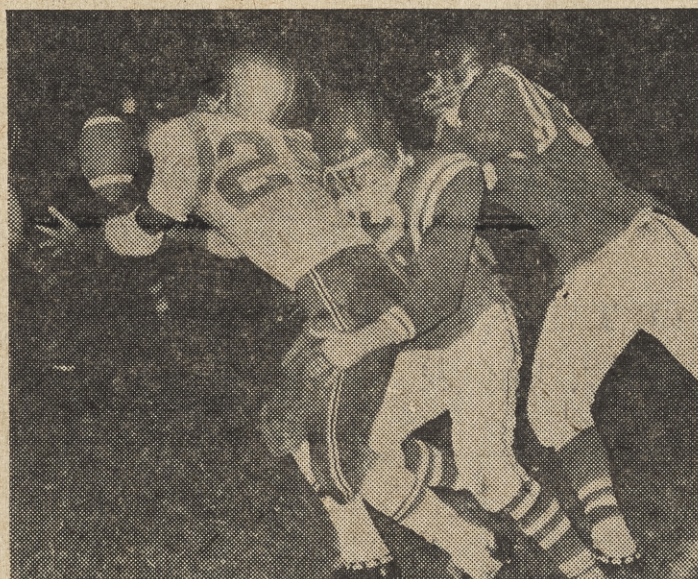

The line has good size and can get the job done. Captain Bill Husted, all-league last year, anchors the forward wall. Joining him are John Lucas, all-league end, and Bob Crutcher at the other tackle.

Alhambra comes into league play with a relatively inexperienced club.

PH Dumps Acalanes, 26-0 For Second Win in Row

By HEC HANCOCK

Still smarting from the 26-0 thumping handed them by the Pleasant Hill Rams last week, the Acalanes Dons are regrouping their forces to do battle with their arch rival, the Las Lomas Knights, in a game scheduled tonight on the Dons' home turf.

The Pleasant Hill gang completely dominated every phase of the game as they rolled to their second consecutive victory of the 1962 campaign.

Sparked as usual by Nelson Shelton and Dave Clark, with Vic Mann thrown in for good measure, the Rams piled up a commanding four-touchdown lead shortly after the third quarter got under way. They were then content to maintain the status quo for the balance of the game.

THE RAMS got on the scoreboard midway through the first period on a 49-yard scoring jaunt by Clark. Shelton had set the scoring thrust up, when on third down with long yardage to go, he ramblled around end for 13 yards and a first down on the Dons' 49-yard marker.

From this point, Clark boomed through a nice hole at left tackle, veered to his right, and with some key blocks in the secondary set sail for the goal line. The conversion try by Clark missed.

Clark set the second score up, when he ran an Acalanes punt 25 yards to the Dons' 20-yard line.

He then followed up with a 15-yard thrust to the Dons' four-yard marker. Shelton capped the drive with a scoring plunge from one-yard out.

This time, Clark split the up-rights with the conversion try, running the score to 13-0.

With time running out in the first half, Nelson Shelton pitched a touchdown strike to Clark to climax a 30-yard march to the end zone. Again Clark's kick for the PAT was good, making the half-time score 20-0.

FOLLOWING THE intermission kickoff, the Dons started a drive, but were finally forced to give up the ball without threatening too seriously.

Once again, the Rams started to move. This time, the big gun was senior halfback, Vic Mann. Mann ate up 40 big yards on a run to the Dons' 20-yard line. Shelton then hit Mann with a pass, the play winding up on the two-yard line.

From this point, Mann slammed into the end zone for the final six pointer of the game. Granted three tries at the PAT due to penalties, Clark's final kick was smothered by the Dons' forward wall.

Acalanes' backs, Bob Brabant, Mike Hallock and Jan Van Loben Sels were only able to move the ball occasionally. For the most part, the Ram forward wall contained the Dons' run-and-gun game, and kept them from mounting any serious offensive threats.

DVC Plays Tonight at Las Lomas

Diablo Valley College will play its first home game of the season tomorrow night, against Santa Rosa Junior College at Las Lomas High School.

This will be a non-conference tilt. Last year the Vikings defeated Santa Rosa 20-15.

Last Saturday night Modesto's Stanford Davis demoralized the Vikings by romping to three touchdowns as Modesto defeated the Vikings 21-8.

Diablo Valley's only score came late in the fourth quarter. The drive went 58 yards in 12 plays with Bob Guadagni leading the way.

Jim Riccoli plunged for the score from the one.

Bob Fredricks took a pass from John Dyer for the two-point conversion.

Sun Staff Splits, But Picks Del Valle, 3-2

There's no doubt about it. The BIG game tonight is at Las Lomas High School, where Del Valle hosts Miramonte. Both teams are 2-0. The Foothill Athletic League opens its 1962 season with three games tonight: Las Lomas at Acalanes and San Ramon at Alhambra. Piedmont, winner of its two non-league games, has drawn a bye.

The Sun's staff of football "experts" is split, 3-2, on the all-important game in Walnut Creek — with Del Valle picked to come out on top.

Sports Editor George Colburn gives the biggest point spread — thinking the fine Del Valle backfield and Miramonte's lack of offensive punch to date to be the difference.

The Sun's sports editor believes he can call the shots for every game, it now appears.

If you remember, he picked the Washington Redskins to beat the Cleveland Browns for his "wild card" selection last week — and we all know what happened.

This week, with the Redskins comfortably perched on top of the Eastern Division of the NFL, Colburn sees the red-hot Chicago Bears manhandling their hated rival from the north, Green Bay, 31-21.

IN THE FOOTHILL League, the Sun staff has Las Lomas as a unanimous pick over Acalanes in another close one, and San Ramon picking up win No. 1 at Martinez over Alhambra.

The staff is split, but picks Skyline, after a fine showing against Del Valle, to defeat College Park. It's a common feeling that Pleasant Hill will pick up its third win, over Fremont, however.

THE CONCENSUS (13-5-2) choices for this week's top games:

Las Lomas over Acalanes (5-0) — The experts all agree, it'll be close.

San Ramon over Alhambra (5-0) — The Wolves will be tough to handle.

Del Valle over Miramonte (3-2) — Which will be better under pressure.

Skyline over College Park (3-2) — The Falcons are struggling.

Pleasant Hill over Fremont (5-0) — Shelton and Clark ride again.

DVC over Santa Rosa (5-0) — The Vikings rebound.

Cal over San Jose State (4-1) — —A happy day in the Bear's Lair.

Michigan State over Stanford (4-1) — A Rose Bowl preview?

San Diego over Raiders (4-1) — The Chargers are going to be mad, Marty!

COLBURN (15-5-2) — Las Lomas over Acalanes, 12-7; San Ramon over Alhambra, 13-0; Del Valle over Miramonte, 20-7; College Park over Skyline, 12-7; Pleasant Hill over Fremont, 18-0; DVC over Santa Rosa, 16-7; Cal over San Jose State, 20-7; Michigan State over Stanford, 33-6; San Diego over Raiders, 31-17; 49ers over Minnesota, 35-24.

ANDERSON (14-4-2) — Las Lomas over Acalanes, 12-7; San Ramon over Alhambra, 21-6; Del Valle over Miramonte, 21-14; Skyline over College Park, 13-7; Pleasant Hill over Fremont, 13-6; DVC over Santa Rosa, 21-16; Cal over San Jose State, 21-7; Michigan State over Stanford, 28-6; San Diego over Raiders, 26-16; 49ers over Minnesota, 28-18.

SMITH (13-5-2) — Las Lomas over Acalanes, 12-7; San Ramon over Alhambra, 13-7; Miramonte over Del Valle, 10-7; College Park over Skyline, 7-0; Pleasant Hill over Fremont, 20-7; DVC over Santa Rosa, 14-7; Cal over San Jose State, 21-14; Michigan State over Stanford, 20-7; San Diego over Raiders, 35-21; 49ers over Minnesota, 31-24.

JERNIGAN (12-6-2) — Las Lomas over Acalanes, 14-13; San Ramon over Alhambra, 20-13; Miramonte over Del Valle, 20-19; Skyline over College Park, 20-6; Pleasant Hill over Fremont, 14-12; DVC over Santa Rosa, 20-17; San Jose State over Cal, 24-17; Stanford over Michigan State, 14-7; Raiders over San Diego, 30-27; 49ers over Minnesota, 38-17.

HANCOCK (12-6-2) — Las Lomas over Acalanes, 12-6; San Ramon over Alhambra, 26-6; Del Valle over Miramonte, 21-13; Skyline over College Park, 13-7; Pleasant Hill over Fremont, 20-13; DVC over Santa Rosa, 14-6; Cal over San Jose State, 23-8; Michigan State over Stanford, 33-15; Raiders over San Diego, 30-27; 49ers over Minnesota, 24-17.

Water District Employees Enroll in College Course

College days are here again. W. Leslie Harris, superintendent of production and purification, announced today that he and eight others on his staff have enrolled at Diablo Valley College for a 12-week course covering the sciences used in water purification.

The title of the course is "Sanitary Technology." Harris said, "this course gives us a chance to brush up on the basic scientific principles behind our work at the treated water division's two filtration plants. Also, we'll be introduced to the latest advances in techniques of water purification. HE NOTED THAT all of the men taking the course are doing so on their own time. Successful completion of an examination at the end of the course will earn them certification by the American Water Works Association, he added.

Fall Tips Given for Soil Improvement

The most frequent mistake made by inexperienced gardeners is in not giving enough attention to soil. With poor soil conditions no plant will do its best and some of them will turn bottom-up and die.

Before doing any fall planting, stop long enough to analyze your soil. Is that ailing shrub you're uprooting ailing because of poor soil? If so, chances are good that whatever you plant will meet the same fate.

TROUBLE could be poor drainage, compaction, lack of humus or want of more food. Most soils suffer one or another of these maladies to some degree. Poor drainage is not an infrequent problem in northern California. We have a variety of adobe soils here which tend to compact and permit water to puddle on the surface. You can usually tell if soil is waterlogged by coring the top six inches and inspecting it. If it's the texture of wet clay, it's waterlogged.

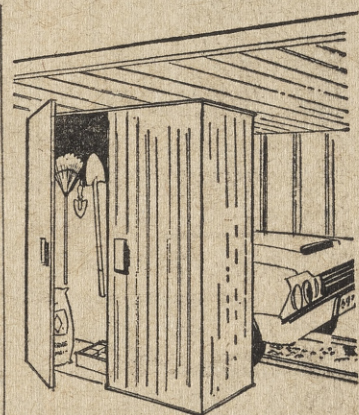

According to the California Association of Nurserymen, poor drainage is the result of either hardpan or compaction. Hardpan is a sub-surface layer of hard adobe which resists water penetration.

IT HAS to be broken up by sub-soiling with a rotary tiller or with a spade. Compaction is a surface condition brought on by continued trampling over wet adobe soil. This has to be broken up, then leavened with a humus material such as steer manure or peat moss. Done in fall, it will be ready for winter.

Once a compacted soil is worked into the condition you want, use a commercial soil conditioner—your C.A.N. nurseryman can recommend one—and work it in. Such conditioners will keep a soil in the condition they find it.

OCCASIONALLY the gardener's problem is just the opposite of compaction. His soil is so loose and sandy that nutrients are washed out faster than the plants can take them up. The remedy is much the same as with compacted soils, only in this case the manure and peat will bulk the soil up, helping it to hold moisture and food.

A full application of fertilizer will do wonder for your soil. Use a slow-acting fertilizer. During winter's months, the food elements will be released slowly and the plants can store it up for their big spring growth period.

YOU CAN ADD a protective wall to your carport and gain storage space, too. This easy-to-build wall is framed in 2x4s with doors which open to the outside.

Mums Give Quick Shot of Colors

When a gardener needs color in a hurry, he can always turn to pot-grown Chrysanthemums. Thanks to hot-house culture, these full bloom beauties are available through C.A.N. nurseries for 12 months of the year. They are always most welcome in fall. Their autumn-like colors, the rich bronzes and yellows, are excellent either for spot color outdoors, or for decoration indoors.

Seasonal Showpiece -- Barberries

Lacking the abundance of color which fall brings to eastern gardens, the Californian is ever on the lookout for shrubs and trees that take on autumn tones.

He finds them, too, in trees such as liquidambar which produce brilliant foliage or in one of our many berried shrubs such as the Pyracantha.

IF HE LOOKS at the barberry family he will find both berries and foliage like that give him color when fall arrives. Moreover, he will find a family of shrubs that is too little used when one considers the merits of its various members.

Barberries are definitely seasonal show pieces in fall, but they offer interest in other seasons, too. In fact, they have a year-round charm that makes them especially useful.

This is a huge family of shrubs, both evergreen and deciduous. Of more than 100 known varieties, however, only a few are of interest to the gardener. These find their places in the foundation planting, in the mixed shrub border and in informal hedges. When used as a hedge, the barberries are guaranteed to discourage trespassing, for so horny are they that even a mouse would have trouble in passing through.

ONE OF THE BEST barberries for home grounds, according to the California Association of Nurserymen, is the Darwin Barberry. A neat and refined evergreen shrub, it grows some five or six feet high and often as wide or wider, producing clean, glossy, dark green leaves of holly-like appearance.

In spring, the Darwin Barberry has striking clusters of golden-orange flowers, and in milder climates it continues to scatter these throughout the year. The flowers are followed by blue-black berries. In fall, when nights start to turn cool, the foliage takes on a bronze cast which carries over with cold weather in winter.

BEING EVERGREEN, this barberry makes an attractive, informal hedge plant. It does equally well at the seashore or in the foothills, seems indifferent to soils and asks only water for its best performance. It is among the deciduous barberries that we find the pleasing combination of colored foliage and colored berries in fall. The Wilson Barberry and the Japanese Barberry are especially attractive in California, the latter having variations in leaf color and size which make it doubly interesting. BOTH WILSON Barberry and Japanese Barberry are rather low, shrubby specimens for the border where the fall color will stand out. Their foliage is green from spring until autumn at which time it colors up vividly before dropping the leaves to unveil the masses of coral berries along the branches.

Japanese Barberry has two variations which the gardener should get to know. One is the Red Leaf Japanese Barberry, which has bronze-red foliage in the summer that turns to beautiful amber shades as nights cool off. The other is the Crimson Pigmy variety—a dwarf counterpart of the Red Leaf Japanese Barberry. Both of these need sunny spots to maintain the rich bronze tones of their foliage in summer. When the leaves drop in fall, the coral or red berries of these deciduous barberries linger on and on along the bare branches.

The holding quality of these berries is amazing. They hang on in the garden until the spring growth starts once again, and when cut for display in the house, they will last for weeks.

There is scarcely a more varied family of plants in the world than the bamboos.

You find them growing in pots to a height of only 10 inches, and you find them growing in nature to heights of over 100 feet. At the same time, their girth varies from toothpick size to almost a foot in diameter.

It's a little known fact about bamboos that they are all members of the grass family, and you can actually mow the dwarf variety. Such is not a common practice, however, for it robs the little plants of all form and serves no purpose other than thickening the stand, which is sometimes desirable.

BAMBOOS ARE handsome plants and those of a size to fit the garden setting will do much for it. They have an open and airy look, a certain feathery grace which sets them apart from other plants and catches the eye right away. Refinement is the word that best describes their nature.

Californians are luckier than most in that our climate permits us to grow many members of this family. Most bamboos are only hardy to about 20 degrees which means that even in the Golden State there are areas where winter protection is needed. In such places, they are best treated only as container plants and moved inside a glass window for the coldest months.

The California Association of Nurserymen, members of which offer a varied selection of bamboos, suggests using them in containers even where the above precaution is unnecessary, for bamboos are plants to be set apart and featured as only container growing can do.

PINEAPPLE GUAVA with leaves similar to but larger than that of the olive, produces an oval-shaped fruit bearing a pronounced resemblance to pineapple which may be eaten fresh or made into jam or jelly. Will grow to height of 15 feet and flowers in late spring. The inset tells you what to look for at your local nursery.

Palms Lend Grace to Contra Costa Gardens

Among the most striking plants of the world are the palms. Where they are hardy, as in much of Contra Costa, we grow them outside to grace our gardens. And wherever you live, they can be grown as house plants in pots and tubs. Some are wonderfully tolerant of indoor conditions.

Californians are fortunate in having an exceptional variety of palms to choose from. They are the sycagrus palm, or Brazilian one of our specialties—symbols of the paradise which generations of gardeners have created in the Golden State.

Check with a member of the California Association of Nurserymen and discover for yourself which of the different palms might fit into your own house or garden.

Dahlias Like Lifting When Tops Are Dry

Dahlia enthusiasts would never think of letting their favorite bulbs overwinter in the soil. In different gardeners, however, often treat them this way with only a slight decrease in the quality of bloom next year.

Dahlias cannot be left indefinitely, however, for the clumps will become impossibly crowded, so if you left them in the ground last winter, be sure to lift them this year.

The California Association of Nurserymen says this can be done anytime the tops have dried, which could be now or December, according to when you planted your dahlias.

Oregon Grape Gives Gardener Nary a Gripe!

One native which has become such a favorite that we often forget it's a native—is the Oregon Grape.

While not native to the southern half of California, it readily adapts to all southern counties. In sun or part shade, it makes a handsome shrub with glossy, holly-like leaves, clusters of yellow bloom and bronzy hues to its foliage the year around.

There are other natives such as the terrific white Matilija Poppy or the yellow-flowered Fremontia. Still others, a trip to the nursery will turn up.

Remember that all natives are undemanding, durable and most natural in a Contra Costa garden.

GARDEN CHECK-LIST

PREPARED BY THE CALIFORNIA ASSOCIATION OF NURSERYMEN

This is an excellent week for gardeners to do the following:

1. Many vegetables can be planted for winter harvest. Beets, carrots, lettuce, Swiss chard, peas, parsley, cabbage, Brussels sprouts are included.
2. Geraniums should be pruned back this month to keep plants from getting too leggy.
3. Continue spraying roses and late tuberous begonias for mildew. Add an insecticide to the rose spray to catch such late season pests as thrips, leafhopper.
4. Select shrubs for fall color. Many are beginning to show autumn tones in nurseries now.
5. Lawns may still be planted. It's getting late, however, for some inland areas, so hurry, as it is desirable to get a new lawn in before the heavy rainy season.

A brand new lawn without digging up!

Until now, there wasn't much you could do with a really hopeless lawn except dig it up and start over. But today you can wipe out all lawn vegetation—crabgrass, weeds, grass—with a simple spreader application of ERASE®.

Just one week later, without digging up and without the expense of bringing in topsoil, you can sow all-perennial, weed-free Scott's seed for the new lawn you want.

The dead stubble of your old lawn makes a perfect seed bed—and with protein-building TURF BUILDER you grow a good lawn on any soil—even subsoil!

College Juniors Will Receive Class Rings

Saint Mary's College juniors will receive their class rings at the first major student social event of the college's centennial year tomorrow.

The annual junior ring dance will be held in the Skyline Suite of the Hilton Inn on the Peninsula. Walt Tolleson's orchestra will provide music from 9 p.m. to 1 a.m.

The dance will be the climax of a day of activities for the class. The rings will be blessed by Father Thomas J. Hayes, O.P., student body chaplain, at a 9 a.m. Mass on the campus. A special breakfast will follow.

Dress up Your Yard

Here are some interesting and inexpensive ways to dress up your drab yards, as recommended by outstanding landscape architects.

In sunny country, create your own shade for the patio with a slanted overhang roof. Frame can be of 4x4 Douglas fir posts and 2x6 beams. Then put 1x2 inch slats over the entire roof frame with one half inch to an inch allowed between each slat. The effect is striking and functional.

The HS CHRDILSHRDLUUV THE SLATS will provide an interesting shadow pattern over the patio and will create their own cooling shade. Best results are obtained if patio deck is made of wood, because wood will not retain the afternoon heat like concrete.

A good wood to use is Douglas fir which is tough, long-lasting and readily available in every town in the country.

If you set the patio up a foot or two above the ground you get fine ventilation which will also provide its own cooling influence. The use of floating steps of wood, exaggerated as to size must lead up to the wood decked patio, adds an interesting flair to the installation.

GOOD ACCENT pieces around the garden can be had for very little expense. Benches installed permanently in odd corners or along garden paths are inviting and often used. You can build these benches of Douglas fir or western red cedar and they should be left to weather to a silvery grey which will blend well with the shrubbery.

If you have paths in your garden, build odd sized planter boxes as anchors where paths branch or cross. Western red cedar is ideal for this use, and two-inch thickness is just right.

ANOTHER accent installation around a yard or garden is the sectional fence. A ten or 20-foot fence section set down in a garden to divide work areas and play areas makes an ideal back-

The sectional fence is perfect as a windbreak and can be placed to catch and divert winds from a prevailing direction.

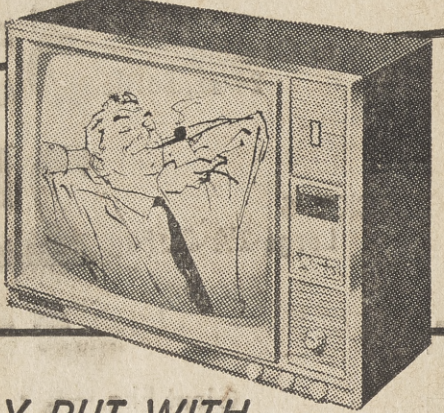

A SMALL wood deck beside a lily pond makes a perfect loafing spot. If raised a foot or so above the ground it makes an ideal seat and needs no deck or lawn furniture.

There are many other useful and decorative installations which can add greatly to the charm and functional use of your outdoor areas.

LONG HOUSES

For many centuries, Indian tribes along the Washington coast built long houses of split cedar shakes. Modern man also knows the virtues and long life of cedar, uses it all across the nation for home siding both in lumber and shakes.

Bulbs Needn't Be Hurriedly Planted

This season, many gardeners rush out and get their bulb planting done in a hurry. This is not necessarily the best practice, however. According to the California Association of Nurserymen, tulips, especially, are better when not planted until later in the fall.

And when you do plant them bury them deeper than is normal for colder climates—eight inches is none too deep. Your reward will be sturdier plants, longer stemmed blooms than otherwise.

Best Of Winter Bedders

It's been said that the Contra Costa fall is no more than a second spring, and from the gardening standpoint, this might well be so.

While gardens in much of the country are being settled down for the winter nap, we are thinking of ways to fill them with color for the darkest days ahead.

THE GARDENER should be busy this month setting out annual bedding plants for winter bloom.

His success will vary according to local climate conditions, but will surely be much more than the gardeners in other parts of these United States whose gardening activities close with the coming of winter.

In milder climates along the coast, winter annuals are sure fire. Inland the amount of color they are apt to give depends on getting them off to an early start. Plant them now and chances are good for a winter show. Wait another month and you won't see much color before spring.

The best of the winter bedders are found in the following annuals.

PANSIES. According to the California Association of Nurserymen, no other bedding plant has such a universal appeal. Planted now, pansies will give you color from winter through spring, provided you keep fading flowers picked before they go to seed.

Give pansies full sun for winter bloom and choose a location that is well drained. Where drainage is poor, don't plant pansies or any other winter annual until the condition has been corrected.

VIOLAS. If pansies are favorites, their cousins, the violas, are not far behind in popularity. These are found in flats of blue, yellow, white or apricot colors—never mixed, though mixing them is not a bad idea for the gardener. Use pansies for massing, violas for edging.

CALENDULAS. Brightest of the winter bedders is probably the Calendula, or Pot Marigold, to use its time-honored nickname. These are year-round color bearers, but are best in the cooler months when mildew is not apt to disfigure them.

Nurserymen sell the Beauty Mix, a strain of modern hybrids that elevates this common garden plant to aristocratic stature. Mass them in a sunny bed and enjoy their bright bouquets during winter's worst weather.

FAIRY PRIMROSES. The delicate, weather-defying Primula malacoides gives its best color in the milder gardens along the coast, where temperatures seldom drop below 23 or 24 degrees.

Inland, however, it will bloom happily through most winters, especially with a partly sheltered location, as under a tree. Plant it in a soil enriched by leaf mold and use it to edge a path or a bed, setting plants only five or six inches apart. The color range is lavender, white, rose and pink.

STOCKS. This spring-summer favorite is also available for the winter garden and when planted in September will yield a surplus of bloom from Christmas on into spring. Select the sunniest spot in your garden for winter stocks and set the plants only 8 or 9 inches apart for best display.

Nip out the tops when you set them out to encourage side-branching sturdier growth. You have a choice of white, purple, pink and shades thereof.

CYCLAMEN. This bulbous or tuberous rooted plant is available as seedlings in a flat for liberal use in the winter months. Its flowers are like bright fairy lanterns, shining forth during the darkest weather, white or pink with delicate and exotic shadings of their throats.

The petals are recessed as though the flowers had jumped right out of them in their eagerness to bloom. They want leaf mold in the soil and protection overhead when grown in the hotter valley areas.

SWEET PEAS. Masses of cut flowers are the reward of gardeners who plant sweet pea seeds early enough, so wait no longer. Dig a trench a foot or more deep, layering manure in the bottom, then a layer of soil, then seeds, and more soil.

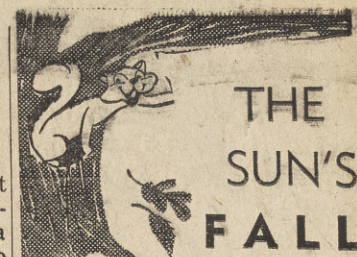

As the seedlings sprout, gradually fill the trench around them until it is level with the soil. Use chicken wire to protect the sprouting seedlings from birds and either chicken wire or string to support them when they start reaching up for a hand hold.

The prime requisites for success with winter bedders are starting them early and giving them a well-drained soil. Winter pests are at a minimum, but baiting for snails is a wise precaution.

Glads Ready to Lift From Ground

Gladiolus are ready to lift when the top yellows off and starts to turn brown. Dig them carefully so as not to damage the corms, then cut the stalks off about an inch above the bulb.

Dust the bulbs with an insecticide to thwart the ever-troublesome thrips and store them in a cool place for the winter—or until planting time rolls around again next January or February.

home and garden edition

Peonies Are Wallflowers

Peonies are not as widely grown in California as they deserve to be. There are two types—three peonies and herbaceous peonies and the former does better here than the latter. Check with your C.A.N. nurseryman this month and ask him about peonies for your garden.

In planting them, dig the soil deeply and work in plenty of steer manure before setting the plants out.

Tree peonies (actually shrubs, not trees) are usually planted from containers which makes the job no more difficult than planting any other ornamental.

Giant Leaved Cousins Are Great for the Shade

A giant-leaved cousin to the a main stem that pushes up each year until it reaches some 12 or 15 feet. These are not the sturdiest shrubs and a high wind will wreak havoc with both leaves and trunk, so be sure to plant them out of prevailing winds. Around Christmas time or before, both Aralia and Ricepaper plant they come to naught, though an occasional volunteer seedling suggests that flowers of the latter develop past the blooming stage every so often. These two complement each other nicely, for while one needs shade, the other is best in sun. They can be grown together, with one shading the other from the sun's full blast. ONE OF the most decorative vines grown in California owes its origin to the Aralia. This would be the Fatsia, which is an unlikely cross between Aralia and Ivy. It has the deep glossy green color of the one parent, the rambling growth of the other and leaves that look like what they are—half Aralia and half Ivy. That is to say the leaves are larger than one and smaller than the other with a shape that vaguely resembles each of them.

Annual Italian Benefit For College Is Oct. 7

Program of operatic arias by Ieron of San Francisco. A. An-Salvatore Baccaloni and a tour of the Hillsborough chateau of Countess Lillian Remillard Dandini will highlight the annual Friends of the Renaissance buffet and reception October 7.

The event, which is part of the St. Mary's College Centennial program, is sponsored by the group interested in the Italian language and culture and is a benefit for the establishment of a chair of Italian at St. Mary's.

Baccaloni, renowned opera basso and movie star, who is singing the role of Alcindoro in La Boheme at this year's San Francisco Opera opening, appeared in concert at St. Mary's two years ago. He attended Scuola Braschi in Rome, a papal school operated by the Christian Brothers who also run St. Mary's.

The 96 room chateau, which was built by Harriet Pullman Carolan Schermerhorn, daughter of Georg M. Pullman in 1915, was at that time the largest mansion in the United States, with baths hewn out of marble, 14 carat gold faucets, and sterling silver drain boards.

COUNTESS DANDINI, whose father's company made the bricks of "The Old Brickpile" the Saint Mary's College building which was in Oakland from 1889-1928 purchased the chateau in 1951.

Honorary chairman of the reception is Mrs. George T. Camron of San Francisco. A. An-Salvatore Baccaloni and a tour of the Hillsborough chateau of Countess Lillian Remillard Dandini will highlight the annual Friends of the Renaissance buffet and reception October 7.

The program will include a recital by harpist Joel Andrews of the San Francisco Conservatory of Music, and flutist Yaada Weber.

Brother T. Michael, F.S.C., president, will greet the guests at 4 p.m. The tour will follow. Tickets for the event are $7.50 per person.

Members of the reception committee are: Sylvester Andriano, Edward Basso, Mrs. A. Anthony Bilotti, Joseph E. Brignole Jr., Elmo Cavallero, Mr. and Mrs. Felix Chialvo, Countess Lillian Remillard Dandini, Albert De Benedetti, Mr. and Mrs. Mario Delucchi, Enrico Dell-Osso, Mr. and Mrs. George A. Dini, Joseph Dongarra, Mr. and Mrs. Sylvester Enea, Fred A. Ferroggiaro, Aldo Galetti, Mrs. Edwin Hesselberg, John P. Maffeo, Stephen Maffini, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence S. Mana, Renato Marazzini, Mr. and Mrs. Leo A. Ostaggi, Louis M. Piccirillo, Mr. and Mrs. Salvatore Reina, Marco Roggero, Remond C. ## Easter Seal Names Fletcher President

Daniel H. Fletcher, administrator of a Richmond hospital, was elected president of the county Easter Seal Society for Crippled Children and Adults, and a master plan for extension of ES services has been developed by the professional-medical advisory committee of the society. Both announcements came shortly after the annual meeting held recently.

Fletcher, a member of the board of directors of the Easter Seal Society of Contra Costa County for the last three years, has served as a member of several Easter Seal committees. He was vice-president of the Contra Costa County Easter Seal Society during the year 1961-1962. He is also a member of the Contra Costa County Council of Community Services.

Fletcher came to Contra Costa county nine years ago from Portland, Oregon. Upon completion of graduate work at the University of California, he became a hospital administrator in Oakland.

He currently is administrator of Permanente Hospital in Richmond. He and his wife, Eleanor, reside in Martinez.

THE NEW MASTER plan will provide for continued operation and expansion of services in the rehabilitation workshop in Richmond, according to Ray Poindexter, M.D., chairman of the advisory committee.

In addition, a comprehensive plan has been adopted to meet other needs of handicapped children and adults, and to develop and conduct programs for parents of handicapped children and for the public to better assist crippled residents of Contra Costa County.

Dr. Poindexter said that the expanded service program will be initiated this fall with the establishment of an activity center for severely handicapped young adults, 16 years of age and older, in Richmond. The activity center program will consist of arts and crafts, music, remedial subjects, typing, recreation, and the development of products to manufacture and sell.

In January of next year a second activity center is planned in central Contra Costa County. Other projected services include a summer speech clinic for western Contra Costa County in 1963, and home care rehabilitation services for eastern Contra Costa County in the fall of next year.

SERVICES FOR PARENTS of crippled children have always been a major part of the Easter Seal program nationwide, according to Dr. Poindexter, and this month the Easter Seal Society of Contra Costa County in coordination with Wesley Fellowship of the El Sobrante Community Methodist Church is conducting a training course for high school and college students interested in "baby sitting" with handicapped children while parents enjoy a night out.

Initial steps will be taken this fall to organize a countywide coordinating council for parent groups concerned with the needs of handicapped children. As an ancillary service to the parent council parent study courses will be developed.

IN THE AREA of public education, full support of Easter Seal Society board members and volunteers will be given to the development of a steering committee to work with the California Society for Crippled Children and Adults in a statewide endeavor to eliminate the architectural barriers that prevent handicapped persons from participating to the fullest extent in community life.

"The Easter Seal Society board of directors has adopted a program which will truly meet the major needs of handicapped persons throughout Contra Costa County," said Dan Fletcher, president of the Easter Seal Society of Contra Costa County. "The assistance of many volunteers with varied talents, training and experience will be required to make our program effective."

County Loses Airport Suit

A Richmond jury awarded a $6335.51 judgment against Contra Costa County and Buchanan Field in Superior Court last week on a complaint that faulty maintenance service at the airport had caused the forced landing and crack-up of a small plane.

Damages were awarded to General Air Services, Inc., operator of a flying school at the airport and owner of the plane. Prosecution contended successfully that the plane, piloted by a student, Ronald E. Meyer, 19, of Concord, was "carelessly serviced" at the airport and forced to crash land February 18, 1961 in Franklin Canyon.

Pilot and passengers escaped injury.

The crash, Attorney R. W. Fields maintained, resulted because an oil stick had been left out when the plane was serviced immediately prior to the crash-landing.

Aralias Make Bold Pattern

Big, bold and showy are all words that describe aralias—or fatias, as they are also called. They are that and more, too, being also among the very best shrubs for accents and for tropical effects in the garden.

The huge, deeply-lobed leaves of the aralia are highly decorative items for the gardener to work with. They can be used inside, near a large window, as you might use one of the larger philodendrons. They can be used in a lanai room or under the eaves of a covered terrace.

They can be used in a patio planting, and they also find their place in the shrub border, though their effectiveness is reduced by the crowding of other shrubs.

The outstanding thing about this indoor-outdoor plant is its ability to maintain a glossy green appearance in the shade (filtered light is best). In such situations many plants take on a dull, lifeless appearance, but not the aralia. It is ever the handsome foliage plant, gaining instead of losing vigor as shaded years pass.

In sun, however, while it grows without faltering, the aralia loses its deep green lustre and fades to a light yellow green that definitely detracts from its looks. The California Association of Nurserymen recommends against planting it in sunny spots.

Aralias are seemingly indifferent to soil, thriving equally in sandy loams and heavy adobes. Its tropical background suggests that a soil rich in humus is probably most to its liking, however, and certainly such a soil will admit water which is good.

Hibiscus Gives Summer Blooms

The exotic tropical hibiscus is one of summer's joys in Contra Costa.

It loves the warm days and nights of our summer and you find gardeners who grow it as an annual just for the lovely bloom it gives in one summer season. Best results come from hibiscus grown against a sunny wall.

Named hibiscus varieties to look for include the familiar rose-pink Agnes Gault, the double golden-yellow Crown of Bohemia, the ruffled-pink Ross Estey, the vividly-red single President and the lovely double-pink variety Kona.

One of the best known and brightest reds is Brilliant. Some of these are occasionally found trained to small tree form, and a spectacular small tree they make.

Persimmon Bonus

The Persimmon tree grows in a wide-spreading, open manner, making a most attractive tree for small gardens. It can be grown in a lawn, beside a driveway or in the outdoor living area.

The large, glistening orange fruits ripen in October and November, just in time to make wonderful centerpieces for the Thanksgiving table—or deliciously sweet mouthfuls for the gourmet. After harvesting the crop, the gardener gets a bonus of fall color from the leaves which turn to bright autumn tones of orange and yellow before dropping.

The most popular variety is Hachiya. Next most popular is Fuyu. You can't go wrong with either.

Realtors, Lawyers Call Forum

An Attorney-Realtor Forum will be held at the Contra Costa Board of Realtors' auditorium in Walnut Creek on four successive Tuesday nights, starting this week.

A series of panel discussions, the forum is sponsored by a committee of the Contra Costa Bar Association and the education committee of the Board of Realtors.

"The Use of Standard Forms" is the first topic scheduled. Successive discussions will be: "Packaging Building Deals," "Easements, Rights-of-way, Party Walls," "Subdivisions—Bonds Acts—Condominiums."

Moderator this Tuesday is Harry Lohstroh, attorney. Members of the panel are Phil Dirks of Mason-McDuffie, Willard Stone, attorney and president of the Contra Costa County Bar Association and Richard C. McCall of North American Title Company.

Admission to the entire series is $2.00, according to Carl Bryant, chairman, board education.

Local Doctors Attend Seminar

Among the more than 400 members and guests of the Samuel Merritt Hospital Medical Staff who attended the Oakland hospital's 17th annual medical seminar at the Hotel Claremont in Berkeley on September 6 and 7 were Dr. Howard L. Conklin of Orinda; Dr. Melvin C. Bolender, Dr. Gordon P. Van Nuys, Dr. Alan Ory, Dr. Arthur P. Danzig, Dr. Howard B. Flanders, Dr. Charles J. Hart and Dr. George L. Kline of Walnut Creek.

Dr. Gilbert W. Byers, Dr. Donald W. Atcheson, Dr. Ralph D. Kirk, Dr. L. Robert Martin, Dr. John E. Mason, Dr. Robert R. Pinger and Dr. Robert Taines of Concord.

Dr. Frederick W. Ackerman, Dr. Gene S. Coburn, Dr. John P. Toth, Dr. Peter Kunkel and Dr. Lee H. Lorenzen of Pleasant Hill.

Guest speakers for the two all-day sessions were Dr. James T. Priestley of the Mayo Clinic and Dr. Belling H. Scribner of the University of Washington School of Medicine.

Dr. Paul C. Samson of Merritt's Thoracic Surgery Staff, was chairman of this year's seminar.

Growing Gifts Makes A Permanent Memory

Not the least concern of the man with a new home is how to fill the garden. And if you've ever started from scratch, you know what we mean. Even experienced gardeners can use a helping hand and novices are lost without one.

Chances are you could name one or another friend who is facing the new garden dilemma right now. And whether he's a novice or no, the gift of some specially nice plants plus the offer to help plant them will be most gratefully received.

There is no "best" shrub or plant with which to help a friend get started. The California Association of Nurserymen suggests something of a permanent nature rather than otherwise—something which is bound to give pleasure through the years and, just incidentally, to remain a reminder of your thoughtfulness.

Small Greenhouse Course Is Offered

Small greenhouses are flower lovers' heartfelt needs.

For potted plant culture and year 'round production of cut flowers, they're essential. Late summer and early autumn is the time to build them, say Pennsylvania State University specialists.

To teach small greenhouse construction and management, Penn State offers a correspondence course of six lessons titled "The Home Greenhouse."

Types of houses and their construction are presented in detail. There's a lesson on snapdragons, carnations and chrysanthemums for cut flowers and on African violets, geraniums and chrysanthemums as potted plants.

Anyone can get a copy of the complete course by writing to Correspondence Courses, 202 Agricultural Education Building, University Park, Pa. Include name and address and $1.50. Make checks payable to The Pennsylvania State University.

Entire courses are sent by return mail. But study is at the student's convenience, and exams are optional.

Local Group's 'Guys and Dolls' Opens October 6

Tickets are now on sale for the Contra Costa Musical Theatre's forthcoming production of Frank Loesser's prize winning musical, "Guys and Dolls." Opening night will be October 6 in the Mt. Diablo High School auditorium.

Other performances are scheduled for October 12 and 13. Curtain time for all performances is 8:30.

"Guys and Dolls" was a long-run hit on the Broadway stage and was later glamorized by Hollywood in the movie version starring Frank Sinatra and Marlon Brando. However, Director Milli Hoelscher promises that the Contra Costa Musical Theatre's presentation will follow the original score more faithfully.

Many local organizations are already buying blocks of tickets for all three performances. Tickets may be bought at local music stores.

Thank You!

The Sun Newspapers and the Lafayette Youth Association wish to thank the many people who donated their time and effort on September 15 and 16 to make the second annual community swim championships a huge success.

The meet, co-sponsored by The Sun and the LYA, attracted almost 600 youngsters from local community pools.

LYA President George Sutton has expressed his appreciation to the judges and officials who handled the races and to the general workers who helped with the many different jobs during the two-day meet at the Acalanes High School pool.

EYE STOPPER

One ingenious housewife, tired of the drab exterior of her home, installed rough-sawn cedar tongue-and-groove boards on the front of the house, sprayed them white to contrast with the brown of the rest of the siding. The "face lifting" was an eye stopper.

Good-tasting "health insurance." Hot cereals from Betty Crocker. WHEAT HEARTS, the creamy wheat cereal with a flavor of its own. PROTEIN PLUS, with more protein, pound for pound, than meat. HOT TOASTED 40% BRAN, the only hot cereal with all of the benefits of bran and "country kitchen" flavor.

No matter what you're baking, "Drifted Snow" is one flour that can't go wrong. Its purity, uniformity and quality are tested 140 times! No wonder General Mills guarantees baking results that are high, light and fine-textured. Every time. With Sperry "Drifted Snow" Flour.

Flour costs so little compared to the other ingredients in a recipe. Yet baking success depends on good flour. So why take a chance with a cheaper, unreliable brand? Get the flour that has been performance-proved in Western homes for more than 109 years: Sperry "Drifted Snow" Flour.

From box to bowl in 3 minutes. Betty Crocker Hot Cereals: Wheat Hearts, Protein Plus, Hot Toasted 40% Bran. You simply can't cook better-tasting hot cereals. Or more nourishing ones. For variety enjoy every one of them — often.

Teen Volunteers Aid Napa Geriatric Patients

Nineteen teen-agers from local high schools participated in a volunteer program this summer visiting geriatric patients at Napa State Hospital weekly. The highly successful visits of the adopted "grandchildren" accomplished many things.

It broke the centuries-old stigma, fear and ignorance of mental illness. It provided a tremendous boost to patient morale and motivation. And it was a teen-agers, with several deciding on future careers in this field, said leaders.

Three United Crusade agencies cooperated to make the program possible. The Volunteer Bureau of Contra Costa recruited the teen-agers through the local high schools. Mrs. Marian Love, volunteer chairman of the Contra Costa County Mental Health Association, developed and coordinated the program, while the Greater Mt. Diablo Chapter of the American Red Cross furnished transportation.

"ONE OF the patients asked to be wheeled to the canteen for an ice cream cone. This may sound trivial to you," Mrs. Ruth Baham, volunteer coordinator at Napa State Hospital, remarked when interviewed.

"But to that patient who could not make it on her own steam, that was a big adventure," she said. Last Friday the 12th Naval District held a band concert in the hospital baseball park. The park was quite a distance from the two wards assigned to the teen-agers. They wheeled some of the patients and walked with those who could make it on foot.

While the nursing staff assigns the girls to the programs held in the two wards, Mrs. Love supervises the activity from that point.

"THIS IS one of the most worthwhile services I have ever done," she said. "Each week I delight at the eagerness of the patients when the young people arrive and see how they get to know each others' names and become acquainted."
